Council leader says people will be 'empowered' by cuts to bus services

BRIDPORT residents fighting to save local bus routes have been told by Dorset County Council that their communities would be "empowered" by the cuts.

Residents describe threatened bus routes connecting them to the town centre as a "life-line."

But county council leader Spencer Flower claims that, far from depriving communities, cuts in local bus services "empower local groups to work together" by forcing them to initiate schemes such as the 'dial-a-car' initiative which sees neighbours volunteering to drive

by Chris Denne

each other to destinations.

He said: "Many of the rural buses have very little usage and we have had to look at ways of providing a better value for money service by empowering local groups to work together."

"In all parts of Dorset there have been successes with neighbourcar and dial-a-car schemes that offer residents a bespoke service."

One of the routes under the spotlight is the number 44 bus, operated by Damory and subsidised by DCC, whose Saturday service is under threat.

The route runs from Jessopp Avenue, through Bridport taking in East Street, South Street, Coopers Drive, Valley Road, North Hill Way, Hollow Way, Maple Gardens, South Lawns, Pasture Way and Howard Road.

If the cost-cutting measures go ahead, many residents on these streets will need to find another way of getting about on a Saturday.

Bradpole resident Dora Christopher, whose campaign to keep the route running is supported by the King Charles Residents Association, said the proposed cuts would wipe out the highlight of her week.

She said: "Many of us don't have cars and rely on the bus. Going in to Bridport to shop and meet friends on a Saturday can be the highlight of our week."

"Many of us also have family who are only free to meet up with us on a Saturday as they work during the week. And it's a really busy bus too."

Referring to DCC's policy of rethinking bus routes with low numbers of passengers, Mrs Christopher added: "I don't know when they counted the passengers as it's nearly always more than 10 on a Saturday."

Mrs Christopher has started a petition to contest the proposed cut.

Margie Savory, Joint Secretary of the King

Charles Residents association said: "In a town this size, with 47 per cent of the population over 60 years of age on some of the streets served by the bus, and 17 per cent of the Bridport population on housing or council tax benefit, it seems very harsh that the county council propose to cut one of the universal benefits for this aging population."

The Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) – which monitors and advises DCC on transport policy – is also concerned about the proposed cuts.

WATAG member Bob Driscoll said: "This flies in the teeth of Dorset County Council's Local Transport Plan which is aimed at encouraging more people to use public transport."

"As a proposal it's not green, it's not fair and will lead to greater social isolation."

Fellow WATAG member Alan Williams said: "We understand there is a threat to the Saturday service, yet on the last bank holiday the bus was totally full with 47 people."

Other areas will also be hit hard by cuts to the route, according to Mr Williams.

He said: "It's a real loss especially Coopers Drive. Without a bus they can't get into town. It's a lifeline for those people."

It is not the only route to be facing cuts using a decision process Mr Williams says he fails to understand

He said: "DCC say that the 210 route will be reconsidered if it has less than 20 passengers on it. "When we asked how they arrived at this figure we were told it repre-

ORIGINALLY from Hertfordshire, Lisa Eastwood spent many years living in London before moving to Uplyme, near Lyme Regis.

She said she had always loved this part of the world and, after spending her honeymoon in Lyme Regis with husband Mark in 2012, she decided to make the move.

Lisa now lives with Mark, her daughter Ella, 10, and stepsons Tom, 10, and Hugo, 7.

She has recently joined Travel Counsellors, running her own business from home offering travel advice and holiday bookings.

● TELL us a bit about Travel Counsellors and the services they offer...

Travel Counsellors is one of the world's leading independent travel companies and there are now more than 1,200 personal Travel Counsellors who, like me, work from home and run their own businesses. Putting the customer at the very centre of everything is one of the key principals the company was founded on. I am there to ensure my customer gets the holiday that meets their needs but exceeds their expectations. I save them time, stress and, more often than not, money. I truly believe you can't get that from the internet or on the High Street. We also offer the best financial protection in the industry as standard for every customer. Any destination and any budget, cruises, honeymoons, golf trips, safari or even trips for special occasions - I can help.

● WHY did you decide to become a Travel Counsellor?

Travel has always been a passion of mine and, having moved down to the South West, I was keen to work for myself. I knew of Travel Counsellors and had always been extremely impressed with the company ethos of going above and beyond for customers. This struck a chord with me as giving personalised levels of service was something that I've believed in throughout my 20 year career in travel. It is something that is core to the company, in fact Travel Counsellors' slogan is "With us, it's personal". They have a fantastic reputation, so I was keen to be a part of such a prestigious company.

● HAVE you had a good response so far?

I have had a great response and most of my customers have come from referrals which I see as a real compliment. My customer satisfaction rating is currently 100 per cent and I'll continue to deliver the same level of service, so this is something that won't change. Many people locally may not be aware of Travel Counsellors due to the very fact that we don't advertise. I rely solely on word of mouth and referrals so I am keen to grow awareness of the service I offer. Head office does all my admin for me, so I can spend my time visiting my customers in their own homes, meeting for coffee, chatting over Skype, on email or over the phone. That way I can get to know what people want and understand their requirements so I can recommend the perfect holiday for them. I'm available outside of normal office hours at a time to suit my customers. While they are away I'm also on hand to help, and they all have my mobile number so can contact me easily. You'll never have to ring a call centre or deal with anyone else - my service really is personal.

● WHAT did you do before this?

I was head of travel sales for a car rental company and the role gave me plenty of opportunity to travel overseas. I was originally trained at Trailfinders and have worked for other specialist travel companies too.

● WHERE is your favourite place you have travelled to?

It is really hard to choose as I have had so many amazing experiences - see my website www.travelcounsellors.co.uk/lisa.eastwood - but among my favourites are Brazil, New York, South Africa, Morocco and Sri Lanka - all for very different reasons.

● WHERE is your dream holiday destination you have not yet visited?

Croatia was top of my list and I have just returned from two weeks exploring the islands and am currently writing a travel journal on the trip for my webpage. Next on my list is to see The Northern Lights and to visit India.

● WHAT are your personal interests?

Travel, food and wine and spending time with family and friends. I try to combine as many of them as often as possible! My daughter and I are also keen to join the local gig club and get out onto the water.

● WHAT do you like about the local area?

The people hands down! We moved here for the sea, countryside and a different way of life. We got all that but we have also made lots of new friends. Just walking the dog every day I speak to more people than I ever did in London - everyone is so friendly.

● WHAT would you add to or change about the area if you could?

That's a tricky question as we love living here and we have everything we could possibly need. The only thing I could say would be that I do wish there was an M&S a little closer than Dorchester. Having said that, I'm already getting used to shopping online and as it saves me time overall, you could actually see this as another bonus of living here!

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

Definitely buy a boat and extend the house but we wouldn't move. I would continue running my business as I enjoy helping people by taking the stress out of finding their perfect holiday. Winning the Lottery would afford me more time to spend supporting local charities and the community which would be fantastic. And of course take lots of holidays to show the children all the amazing places both Mark and I have been lucky enough to see.

● WHAT three items would you like on a deserted island?

A photo album of my family, a wind up radio and a book on the entire history of the world as I always regretted not taking it as a subject at school.

Fears grow over mooted parking meter charges

FEARS that Bridport's high street could be devastated by proposed on-street parking charges have grown following the revelation that even the shortest stop could cost as much as 30p.

The figure emerged at last week's meeting between Dorset County Council's traffic manager Matthew Piles, Oliver Letwin MP, councillors and concerned parties including Bridport Market Traders Association and Bridport Chamber of Trade.

The proposed charges would see one-hour free parking replaced with ticketed parking costing 30p for half an hour or 50p for an hour, with revenue going to

Dorset County Council

Although designed to improve turn-over in parking bays, the proposals have been described as a "nail in the coffin" for Bridport's high street.

Dorset County Councillor for Bridport Ros Kayes, who has backed calls to scrap the plans, said she was worried about the cumulative effect of the charges.

She said: "Many shoppers, especially older residents, drive into Bridport several times a week.

"I am worried the cumulative effect of paying 30p every time could drive people to the supermarkets where parking is free.

"That could really damage Bridport's shops and services."

Councillor Kayes is now proposing placing questionnaires in shops to garner the views of shoppers and assess how on-street parking charges could affect behaviour.

Bridport Market Association's Roy Gregory, who organised a petition which garnered 5,000 signatures opposing the plans, said the case for Bridport avoiding the proposals rested on it proving it was an "exceptional case."

He said: "The meeting was very interesting. Our argument is that a 'one size fits all' approach to parking across the county does not apply to Bridport.

"Bridport is a unique market town with special draws for visitors. Why tinker with it?"

Mr Gregory added: "I've taken it as far as I can with the petition. It's now incumbent on others to take it forward. One individual can only do so much. It's time for others to take the baton on and take it into the political arena."

District council back down over West Bay pinch point

LOCAL authorities have bowed to public pressure and agreed to scrap the pinch point at West Bay.

The controversial road calming scheme was installed this summer as part of the £1.25million West Bay Enhancement Scheme.

While some of the scheme's improvements to West Bay's streets and pavements were welcomed, residents and business leaders were so incensed by many of the changes that a public meeting was held in March, chaired by Oliver Letwin MP, to air grievances.

A new group – the West Bay Community Forum – was born at that meeting and petitions organised to fight the changes.

Six months on, one of the most disliked aspects of the scheme, the pinch point by the main car park, has become the first casualty of these protests.

Positioned so close to the roundabout that traffic chaos is regularly reported around the site, drivers often resort to driving through the Haddon House car park to avoid it.

Cyclists also complain that the design of rumble strip in the pinch point is dangerous as it could trap the wheels of a bicycle.

But West Dorset District Council have responded to the pressure and are now committed to removing the pinch point in spring next year, replacing it with two way traffic and rethinking the rumble strip.

County Councillor for Bridport Ros Kayes said of the decision: "I want to thank the members of the West Bay Community Forum and individuals who have spent so much of their spare time gathering evidence about the problems caused by the pinch point.

"Many people get frustrated at how long councils take to go about things... we are there now, and hopefully this will all be sorted before the next holiday season.

"Now that West Bay has both a Community Forum and a Business Forum, these groups will automatically be consulted when future plans come forward and will be more likely to be heard.

"Hopefully this will prevent problems like the pinch point arising again.

"There are further issues to take on board about the enhancements at West Bay, such as the crossing at by the church and getting the priority at the junction changed."

District councillor David Tett said: "I am pleased that common sense has prevailed and the district council has listened to, and taken on board, the concerns of those it most affects i.e. the residents and businesses of West Bay."

He continued: "It was not until it was constructed did one fully appreciate how it would pan out on the ground.

He added: "The pinch point has created more problems than it was expected to solve."

Hilary Jordan, WDDC Spatial & Community Policy Manager, said: "The scheme designs that were shown to local residents as part of the consultation included this feature, but we have listened to the further feedback from the local community since the scheme was complete and taken on board all comments.

"We will now be working with Dorset County Council to prepare an alternative design for this location in West Bay. We won't know the cost of the changes until the design work is complete.

"The new layout will allow two-way traffic and incorporate features that will make it easier for cyclists to cross the rumble strip.

"The council is also looking into other aspects of the scheme where concerns have been raised to see if improvements can also be made."

Cuts in bus services proposed

-sented a bus that was half full.

"But that figure has nothing to do with funding. In any case we counted 26 people on the bus last Saturday."

While WATAG remains keen to maintain an open dialogue with DCC, members like Mr Williams are becoming increasingly frustrated with what they perceive as a difficulty in being heard.

Mr Williams said: "DCC subsidise us but you sometimes feel they don't listen to what we say."

Responding to this, Jan Stevenson, Dorset County Council's group manager for passenger transport, said: "Members of the council's public transport team attend WATAG meetings. All reasonable suggestions are considered and implemented if they are workable."

She added: "Plans to reduce bus service subsidies have been drawn up because evidence shows the services are not widely used.

"We are using the information obtained from the current public consultation to establish whether alternative suggestions could be considered by the county council's cabinet in November

"Where possible, we will look to see whether a community scheme [such as dial-a-ride] would be a better way of providing transport."

But Mr Williams said: "Very few people use dial-a-ride. It's not popular. People would much rather keep bus routes."

He added: "DCC don't have a real consultation. In reality they just tell us what they are going to do."

Full details of the proposals and the online form can be found at dorsetforyou.com/bussurvey

For residents who don't have computer facilities, local libraries can help access this information. Comments can also be made through town and parish councils.

Alternatively write to: Dorset Passenger Transport, Dorset County Council, County Hall, Dorchester, DT1 1XJ to give your views.

The closing date for feedback is September 24th, with a decision from Dorset County Council's cabinet on October 2nd.

Services affected include:- Service 71: Lyme Regis town - No Saturday service; Service 72: Lyme Regis Park & Ride (summer) - Withdrawn; Service 73: Cattistock, Maiden Newton, Bridport - Some places not served, Saturday Service withdrawn; Service 76: Bridport-Catherston Leweston (Wednesday only) - Withdrawn; Service 210/44: Bridport-Litton Cheney-Bothenhampton - No Saturday service; Service X53: Lyme Regis-Weymouth (winter Sunday only) - Withdrawn.

Leisure centre signs up to Community Credit scheme

VOLUNTEERS taking part in Dorset's Community Credit Scheme can now take advantage of Bridport Leisure Centre services.

The scheme encourages volunteering by offering volunteers credits which can be exchanged for services from participating organisations across West Dorset.

Joining the scheme, Bridport Leisure Centre is to offer free taster sessions in exchange for a credit, with one credit worth an off-peak swimming session.

Under the scheme a credit is earned for every hour volunteered.

The scheme also offers volunteers with learning disabilities and their 'volunteer buddies' in Bridport, Weymouth, Portland and Dorchester the chance to get involved.

Rachel Ives, assistant manager of the Bridport Leisure Centre, said the facility wanted to give something back to the community.

She said: "Bridport Leisure Centre is delighted to support the Community Credit Scheme.

"We believe it is a fantastic opportunity for us to give something back to our local community.

"We are only too happy to reward the volunteer's valued efforts and hope that by working in partnership with the scheme, we will be able to encourage volunteers to lead a healthy and active lifestyle within our modern, community lead facility."

Community Credit Scheme organisers thanked Laura Kerr and all at the Friendship Club Sherborne and Dorchester for their input, and to volunteer Matthew Price, who designed the 'Community Credit' note.

Project coordinator Siobhan Davis said "It is wonderful that so many local businesses are willing to support this exciting community project especially when times are hard for all.

"Some of the spending options of the scheme are Weymouth Swimming Pool, Pitch & Putt at Lodmoor, Bridport Leisure Centre, Bridport Arts Centre, Bridport Golf Range, 1610 Club in Dorchester, Ann-Maries Zumba Classes and the Plaza in Dorchester."

Contact Siobhan Davis on 01305 269214 or 07918 639014 for more information or an informal chat.

Melplash society celebrates traditional farming skills

THE Melplash Agricultural Society is gearing up for its annual ploughing and hedging match.

The event, celebrating two traditional farming skills, has a long tradition in the area.

In fact it was after a ploughing match held in Melplash in 1846 to resolve a dispute between two farmers, as to whose ploughman was the better, that the Melplash Agricultural Society was formed.

The tradition of holding a ploughing match is very much alive today and still plays a major role in the work of the Melplash Agricultural Society.

Classes are open for both vintage and match ploughing and will also include, following the success of last year, a special Contractors' Challenge.

Over the years the hedge laying competition has been added, another rural craft that the society is keen to promote.

To encourage participation, a free hedge laying training day is taking place in Corscombe on Saturday, September 14th, starting at 1:30pm and finishing at 5pm.

Attendees will be shown how to lay a hedge the Dorset way, will be given hands-on training and will be encouraged to enter the novice hedge laying competition.

The competition itself takes place on Saturday, September 21st at Higher Langdon, near Beaminster (post code: DT8 3NN) by kind permission of Mrs Tessa Mackenzie-Green.

The event will run from 9:30am until 3pm and there will be refreshments available.

A spokesperson said: "It is free to attend and is a great day out for anyone interested in the countryside and learning about traditional crafts."

"On the day there will be a tractor and expert help available for those that would like to have a go at ploughing for the first time too."

For more information contact the Melplash Agricultural Society Office on 01308 423337 or email lucy@melplashshow.co.uk

The closing date for competition entries is September 18th.

Care services in spotlight

DORSET'S Adult Social Care services are in the spotlight this week as the future needs of the county are assessed.

As Dorset County Council prepares to pour £4.7 million into Bridport ASC services, residents in the area are being urged to help shape policy.

The public consultation kicks off on September 23rd, with DCC encouraging the public to get involved and help shape policy for the next decade.

ASC services include day centres, residential care for older people and support for people to stay healthy and independent in the community for as long as possible.

Facilities for children's services in the town are also to feature in the review.

Public meetings will be held on Monday, September 23rd at the Salt House, West Bay, with a second at Bridport Town Hall on Thursday, September 26th. Both will run from 4pm until 8pm, with a presentation at 7pm.

A stand will also be in place, attended by council representatives, outside the Tourist Information Centre in Bridport on Saturday, September 28th from 10am to 2pm, where people can find out more information and give their views.

Carers, service users, health and social care professionals and community groups have already given their views on ASC services.

Councillor Jill Haynes, cabinet member for adult social care at DCC, described public involvement as essential.

She said: "[Local people's] involvement in the initial planning stage is essential to shape services for the future."

"We want to support people to live independent and fulfilling lives, based on choices that are important to them, and also to find more innovative ways to deliver services in the future."

"Nothing has been agreed yet – the detail will come later. The public meetings will give us an opportunity to hear the views of local people and find out their priorities.

"We are committed to modernise and improve services and are urging all those who are interested to attend one of the meetings."

County councillor for Bridport Ros Kayes said: "We all know that Bridport is full of creativity and imagination about how services can be provided."

"I really want the county council to be able to harness that creativity and, for that to happen, we as a community need to express what we want."

"I hope that as many local residents as possible will visit the open sessions later this month and take part in shaping our services for the future."

Feedback from the events will be used to shape some options for county councillors to consider and, once preferred options are agreed, a formal public consultation will take place towards the end of the year.

New dance class is just for boys

A NEW dance class specifically for boys is being launched in Bridport.

In association with Bridport Youth Dance, local dance artist Aimee Symes is leading the new classes aimed at 12 to 16 year olds, who require no previous dance experience.

The style of moving will be a release-based contemporary technique. The movement will be physical, dynamic and there will be a chance to experiment creatively.

There will also be an opportunity to perform a piece of choreography early 2014.

The term will start on Monday, September 23rd from 4:15pm to 5pm and will be a ten-week term.

For more details and to enrol, please contact Nikki Northover at bridportyouthdance@yahoo.co.uk or call Aimee on 07729 244298.

Runners go kamikaze at Mapperton

ON ANY other day of the year, Mapperton Farm is like any other – a steady farm quietly going about its business.

But on Sunday, September 8th all that changed. About 550 people descended on the farm to throw themselves at the mercy of the Votwo Kamikaze Adventure Run.

Tying kamikaze bandanas around their heads, the plucky souls hurled themselves through mud, hauled themselves over obstacles, ran the gauntlet of barbed wire, soaked sponges and dangling strips of electric fencing tape, while dragging themselves around eight miles of hills in what is considered one of the rising suns of extreme sports – the extreme obstacle course.

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedi.co.uk

Reportedly originating in Wolverhampton, the activity is booming around the world, with 20,000 taking part in the Tough Mudder event in Oshkosh, Wisconsin on the same weekend.

The numbers may have been more manageable in Mapperton, Dorset, but the determination among the participants to feel the pain was just as great. So what makes people want to do it?

James Mole from Poole explained: "I just fancied something a bit different. It's a challenge, and it's not every day you get to cover yourself in mud."

Alison Cambridge from Kent had driven five hours with her teammates to take part. She said: "It seemed a great idea, sounds fun. But it definitely suits people who are a bit nuts."

Her 'Grasshopper' teammate David Finns confessed to roping in two new 'victims' after the friends he brought last year declined to come for a second time.

He said: "I did it last year and wanted to come again. It's a great day. So I found two more victims to come with me."

Emma, running for team 'Just in Time' said: "This is the new going out when you reach nearer 40."

There is an added incentive for many teams, like James Mole, running as he was with teammates Steve Delvin and Alan Scott for team 'muDDled' – which was raising money for Julia's House.

It is an aspect of the event that gives VoTwo Managing Director Ben Mason a lot of pride.

He said: "People come to challenge themselves and get dirty, with some taking it seriously and some coming in fancy dress, but we like to focus on the charity fundraising that goes on."

"A lot of money gets raised at events like these. Anyone can do it, it's the taking part that's important."

■ Contestants start the team race

■ Race winner Joe Washington from Huddersfield

"It's not really dangerous – the biggest risk is of exhaustion."

He added: "Thanks go to Rob Newell at Mapperton Farm for allowing us to come here. His land is ideally suited to it."

Joe Washington, a 29-year-old physiotherapist from Huddersfield, made it round the course first in a time of one hour and seven minutes, with Bridport Runners' own Ben Renshaw coming in second.

Paul Christie from West Sussex described being shattered after completing the shorter one-lap course.

He said: "It's shattering – much harder than I thought it would be."

He added: "It's great fun though. I'll do it again."

■ Team 'muDDled' - Steve Devlin, James Mole and Alan Scott

■ Team Grasshopper - David Finns, Alex Corr and Alison Cambridge

It's the world's first garlic eating contest

EYES watered, faces gurned and brows sweated as the world's first garlic eating contest took place in Chideock, near Bridport.

Oliver Farmer from Charmouth beat off competition from 25 other contestants, chomping 49 raw cloves in the five allotted minutes to win the competition at The George Inn.

The rules stated that the cloves had to be eaten one at a time and properly chewed before being swallowed.

Alistair Chubb, 37, from Salway Ash, entered the contest because he liked garlic and fancied his chances.

But speaking prior to the contest he added: "I tried a clove last night and it really burned so I'm

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

quite worried."

Martin Gilmore, 28, from Twickenham, London said he started well before it all started going wrong.

He said: "I got dizzy after eight or nine in. I wanted to finish one pot [of 10 cloves] and in the end I managed that at least."

All of which makes Mr Farmer's record of 49 look all the more impressive. The 34-year-old microbiology student said: "I don't feel too bad. I'm still a bit shaky now but I'd do it again."

Organiser Mark Botwright – who owns the South West Garlic

Farm, near Chideock – started growing garlic in the area 16 years ago.

He said: "It's really good for garlic growing in this area.

"We have sandy, free-draining soil, bright skies, are near the coast – all good for growing garlic."

The 49-year-old now produces seven varieties of garlic.

George Inn landlord Steve Smith added: "It's one of those events that's just a bit of fun.

"They might just be silly competitions but they raise a bit of money for charity so it's all good."

Money raised by the event will go to the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

In spite of the heroics, many of the competitors faced a night or two of discomfort in the days ahead. Kelly Dixon – whose partner Scott Meyers chomped his way through a pot or two of cloves – said: "He's sleeping on the couch. No question about that."

Colfox School students work on community projects in Kenya

SIX students from The Sir John Colfox School travelled to Kenya in the summer with Camps International to undertake community projects.

The projects included helping to concrete a classroom floor, deworming 121 goats, digging 'zay' pits to plant trees, repairing elephant proof fences and building an adult education centre.

The trip also included a four day PADI open water diving course and a bush adventure day that included training on identifying animals by their tracks, building shelters, archery and fire lighting.

The expedition finished with a full day safari.

Trip leader Dr Jo Clare described the experience, saying: "The trip was truly life-changing and a unforgettable experience for students."

"The students approached the project work in the local communities with a really positive attitude and great enthusiasm."

She added: "They were incredibly hard working and a pleasure to travel with."

The work in Kenya was said to stretch the students both physically and emotionally and cemented very special friendships.

A school spokesperson said that the students felt it had been worth the two years of hard fundraising and would do the trip again if given the chance.

Michael Charnley, who was part of the group, said: "It is a really satisfying feeling to know that our group has helped a community."

"In Kenya they have so little but are also so happy."

"We take a lot for granted – unlimited water, electricity, tools and education to name but a few."

Headteacher Kay Taylor said: "All the students and the school would like to thank all those who supported and sponsored the trip and made it possible."

"It was a fantastic opportunity for the students to do something that made a difference."

Alan's guide book for men over 50

A BRIDPORT man has written what he describes as a 'road map' for men as they negotiate life past the age of 50.

Sixty-five-year-old Alan Heeks drew on his own experiences to pen 'Out Of The Woods' published by How To Books.

He said: "Two weeks after my 50th birthday I had left my family

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

home, my marriage had broken up, and my business had lost its main client.

"I learned from my mistakes and from digging my way out of them and my hope is that other men can avoid the pain I went through."

Although he draws from his own experiences, Mr Heeks' book is not autobiographical, with author citing others' experiences within the pages.

He said: "Transitions around this time can happen at the same time. Sadly, older men can tend to lose themselves as they get older – and I, like many others, lost myself thoroughly."

"A lot of men find themselves shipwrecked around the 45 to 60 year mark and this is just a way to help them find their way through those years."

Now happily remarried with a successful new business, Mr Heeks said he "really enjoyed" writing the book, and drawing on the experiences of others.

He said: "Many men underestimate the importance of family but upheavals and changes to family structure affect a lot of men."

With more than ten million men over 50 in the UK, Mr Heeks understands the appeal of the subject matter.

He said: "This is a big group with great potential, and some big issues."

"I hope the book will meet two main needs: firstly, the millions of older men who feel their life could be better in a major way, like relationship, health or work."

"And secondly, the millions who struggle with depression or isolation."

'Out Of The Woods' is sold locally by The Book Shop in South Street, and Waterstones in East Street.

For more about the book, including excerpts, see www.alanheeks.com.

Fairey Band set to return

THE Fairey Band return to Beaminster this week, 34 years to the day after their first performance in the town.

The internationally famous brass band first played in Beaminster on September 22nd 1979.

Their return this Sunday marks their 35th appearance in the town, reflecting more than three decades of dedication from Beaminster residents Tony and Margaret Greenham.

The couple have organised the band's trip to Beaminster over the whole of this period, setting up bed and board for the 30 plus members and raising thousands of pounds for charity in the process.

Last year's performance at St Mary's Church raised more than £700 for Help for Heroes.

Mr Greenham said: "We love the music and love having the band down here to play. We love it. We've had people from as far as Penzance and Essex come along – that covers the whole of the south coast."

"We are so grateful to the many sponsors we have got who have supported us over the years. Without them the event would never take place."

This year, the funds raised will go to the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

Mr Greenham said: "We know the great work that Weldmar do and wanted to support the charity."

The Faireys will play at St Mary's Church, Beaminster on September 22nd, starting 2:30pm.

A varied selection of tunes are promised, from showtunes, popular music, and the classics.

Tickets in advance from the Beaminster branch of Symonds and Samson, the Yarn Barton Centre, Fleet Street, Beaminster, or by phoning Tony and Margaret on 01308 862493.

Tickets may be available on the door but buying in advance is advised to avoid disappointment.

Saving Lives at Sea in Dorset

WHEN the mast of a 120-year-old sail-training vessel came crashing down in rough seas and gale force winds off Portland Bill, Weymouth RNLI Coxswain Andy Sargent and his crew aboard Weymouth's Ernest and Mabel raced to their aid. Andy and his six crew members rushed to the station and were heading out to sea in less than ten minutes from receiving the call.

The 24m Brixham trawler Leader is run by Devon based Trinity Sailing Foundation who offer disadvantaged young people the chance to sail. With winds gusting up to 40 knots she had been sailing south of the Bill when her main mast snapped, bringing her rigging, sail and boom, crashing into the water.

Remarkably, no-one was hurt. But, unable to control the boat following the dismasting, the Brixham trawler had started to drift into the Race, an area of dangerous currents off the Bill.

Andy said: 'The mast was broken and the rigging was in the water on the vessel's port side, so the crew had to deal with this first so it didn't become a hazard to the Leader or to us. They secured the debris alongside the casualty boat as best they could in the conditions and then having determined that no one was injured we secured a tow line.'

'They couldn't use their engine as the gear and rigging was in the water and could have got caught around the propeller.' Due to the rough weather it took five hours for the volunteer lifeboat crew to tow the 1892 wooden sailing ketch Leader, safely back to port.

Rescues such as this are only made possible thanks to the generosity of RNLI supporters. The RNLI are grateful for all the support they receive from people generously donating their money or time, however, legacies are critical to the future of the RNLI and to saving lives. The sea will always be a danger and the RNLI will always be needed to rescue those in trouble.

Many people think that legacies are only for the wealthy, but anyone can leave a gift in their Will to their favourite charity. Any gift, whether it pays for a pair of boots or a boat is gratefully received. Of course it's important that you take care of loved ones first, but the RNLI are asking people to consider the difference a gift could make to the lifeboat crews. It's surprisingly easy to do.

To the RNLI, legacies are a lifeline. A legacy is much more than a gift left in a Will, it's the lifeboat that launches to answer a call for help, the training that helps the volunteer crews reach a vessel in distress and the rope that pulls someone of the water to safety.

West Bay restaurant makes Good Food Guide

A WEST BAY restaurant has been included in the prestigious Good Food Guide.

The Riverside Restaurant – which has been serving up quality fish and seafood dishes in West Bay for more than 50 years – is one of only four eateries in the South West to make it into the guide.

The West Bay landmark with views across the water can now be considered one of the top seafood restaurants in the UK.

Founded in 1951, The Good Food Guide employs a small army of reviewers to anonymously assess restaurants across the country.

The publication prides itself on eschewing sponsorship and adver-

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

tising to remain fiercely independent, focussing solely on the dining experience.

Introducing its seafood section, the guide states: "From city seafood houses to shacks mere metres from the boats, our fishy eateries have been proving that the UK is much more than a fish and chip supper."

Describing the Riverside Restaurant, it continues: "A wooden walkway takes you to a harbour-side building that used to house an old café and post office and since 1960 has been home to the Watson's Riverside Restaurant.

"With its water views and uncomplicated cookery, 'heartwarming' is how this established favourite is best described."

The three other South West restaurants included in the guide are The Seahorse (Dartmoor, Devon), Nathan Outlaw Seafood & Grill (Rock, Cornwall) and Anchorstone Café (Dittisham, Devon).

Riverside owner Arthur Watson said: "We are delighted to be included in such a prestigious list of seafood restaurants."

"It is without doubt due to the hard work of our chefs and front of house team who are both dedicated and passionate about maintaining our high standards as well, of course, our generous and loyal customers."

● The Good Food Guide was founded by, gourmand, journalist, novelist and one-time communist Raymond Postgate, whose son Oliver went on to create classic kids' TV shows such as 'Bagpuss'.

Countdown to Litton Cheney's apple day

THE award-winning Discovery Area at Thorner's School is to host its third 'Big Green Apple Day'.

The annual event in Litton Cheney celebrates sustainability, traditional skills, outdoor learning, local history and – of course – the humble apple.

This year the event is hoping to create an extra buzz when it celebrates the Discovery Area's new status as a Friends of the Earth Bee World.

It is one of just 60 Bee Worlds across the UK to be recognised by the environmental campaign group.

Organisers are promising gift stalls, local hot food, a campfire cantina, cider, apple juice, apple bobbing, and a host of local and traditional crafts.

There will also be a chance to celebrate the school's new Saxon Hut with history experts from the Ancient Wessex Network, dabble in ancient trading, make Saxon braiding and rune jewellery with Dorchester Museum or have a go at wattle and daubing.

To celebrate the Discovery Area's new Bee World status, there will be the chance to plant bee-friendly plants, make a 'pet bee' or get in the mood with some bee face-painting.

Visitors can also have a go at woodlands crafts courtesy of Dorset Forest School & Green Mashed Ed.

As ever, the children's nature trail will be available to explore, while live music will feature bands including the Pirate band Black Wreck Boarding Crew.

The event aims to inspire families and children in developing a caring sustainable future for the whole family.

The event takes place on October 13th, from 2:30 pm. No dogs except guide dogs. Entry by donation.

All set to 'Walk and Wheel'

■ RESIDENTS and staff of a Bridport residential home are set to 'Walk and Wheel' for charity. Fundraisers for The Hyde residential home, near Bridport, are setting out for the village of Walditch to raise money for the Alzheimer's Society as part of the charity's nationwide 'Memory Walk'. The sponsored walk will also honour Phyllis Penney, who died last month, on what would have been her 100th birthday. 'Walk and Wheel' participants will set off from The Hyde at 2pm on Wednesday, September 28th, so there is still time to sponsor them. Anyone wanting to join the walk or sponsor a participant should contact The Hyde on 01308 427694.

Big support for gardening club's late summer show

A RECORD number of entries in some categories made sure Bridport Gardening Club's late Summer Show was hailed a success.

Crowds flocked to the well-stocked plant and produce showcase while there were more entries than ever before in the floral art and handicrafts categories.

These included a section for decorative hats inspired by the Hat Festival, which was one of the show's highlights.

Baking, preserves, treacle tarts, breads and nine scrumptious-looking chocolate cakes caught the eye and got visitors' mouths watering.

Fine entries in flowers, fruit and vegetable classes gave the judges plenty to examine.

Runner beans, beetroot and tomato classes gave stiff competition to the rival growers.

Squashes, although not in a class of their own, appeared in their many shapes and colours on the mixed vegetable trays.

A good standard of photographic entries, including quartets, gave the photographers a chance to show their skills.

Mrs Monique Pasche, former show manager, was the guest of honour, delighting her audience by wearing one of the decorated hats whilst presenting the silverware, including two new cups awarded for the first time this year.

Bedknobs

Antique, Vintage & Second Hand

This week I had the opportunity to get out of the office for a day and explore some of the wonderful antiques, collectables, auction and second hand specialist businesses in the area.

I met with Michael of THE MEWS, Dorchester, to see how antiques have influenced his life. Michael used to make jewellery so he knows what to look for when assessing the quality of pieces he comes across. The unique selling point of the business is to bring top-end quality products to Dorchester.

Antique collection is very popular as a hobby locally, which is why Michael set up shop in June 2012 during the recession. He knows that good quality items hold their value in a poor economy so it is worthwhile investing money in something you will wear but will also retain or even appreciate in value.

Retro is popular the moment with the 1970s being a key style period.

Collecting doesn't have to be expensive, items can start under £50. If you are looking for something specific Michael is able to source pieces to customer's requirements.

If you are looking for an investment piece then look for the high-end brands such as Tiffany, Cartier, Bulgari, and Patek Philippe.

Patek Philippe hand-make just 30,000 watches a year for the whole world market. These are the kinds of pieces you would only expect to find in Bath or London.

Michael has done the hard work for customers in finding interesting items with timeless quality, and with the focus of one dealer and years of experience you can be assured of a personal service.

DORCHESTER CURIOSITY CENTRE on the Grove Trading estate boasts a huge collection of craft, textiles, records, new and quality second hand furniture, local hand made goods, vintage home-ware and clothing and garden ware.

Co-owner Michelle said about the business: "This summer has been amazing, we've had a lot of new customers and lots of very positive feedback." There has also been some interest from BBC shows - 'Antiques Road Trip' and 'Put Your Money Where Your Mouth Is' which have both visited recently and Dorchester Curiosity Centre will feature on the programmes in the autumn and the spring.

The shop is full to bursting with curiosities and is perfect for everyone from the casual browser to keen collector.

When you've finished making your purchases you can relax in the 'Café de la Curiosité' a French style café serving home cooked food and cakes. The café also holds a Knit'n'Natter group on Fridays between 10am and 12pm.

It seems that this is the place everybody is talking about as new customers are happy to let us know that they heard about us from a friend or relative. The website and Facebook page have regular updates of new stock. However, if you haven't visited before then why not pop in on October 5th when Michelle and the team will be celebrating the second anniversary of the business and customers will be welcome to join them for a little celebration.

Gift vouchers from £10 are available for those people who are difficult to buy for. From small nick nacks to large furniture there's a mix of everything including seasonal stock so it's always worth a look.

There is a delivery and collection service as well as the opportunity to have individual items purchased.

Sandy Jordan opened JORDAN'S JEWELLERS in Dorchester on May 25th this year, having spent the last few years selling at antiques fairs and she says that the response has been brilliant. Being a local girl, Sandy wanted to bring her knowledge and experience to the people of Dorchester and felt that the town needed a shop where customers could find new, pre-owned and antique pieces which make the perfect gifts.

Perhaps you have been given a piece of jewellery that you wouldn't really wear, take that piece to the team at Jordan's Jewellers who are passionate about jewellery and are able to re-design old pieces so that they still carry the sentiment.

The stock in the shop changes a lot and Sandy still does some antiques fairs. There are several one-off pieces and current stock includes Suffragette pins, and an original Flapper headdress.

There are watches from as little as £40 to antique Cartier items so there is something for every budget.

The light and airy shop offers a warm welcome and a light-hearted yet professional approach. Items are buy, sell or part exchange and keep an eye on the website for offers.

Next on my travels was a lovely little shop called BOOKS AFLOAT on Park Street in Weymouth, which has been run by John Ritchie for 30 years.

Despite the name the shop stock not just maritime books but also nautical antiques, out of print children's books, timeless classics, old postcards, ship models, clockwork trains, photos and paintings, new maritime and local books.

John has one of the largest collections of nautical antiques and ships bells in the area and has good links with Weymouth maritime history. Before opening the shop he was part of the Merchant Navy for 15 years and was keen to pass that experience on to others. The shop supplied items for the 2009 film The Boat that Rocked which was partly shot in nearby Portland Harbour.

John attends several antiques fairs to add stock to the shop and has good contact with other dealers. If you are looking for a particular item then you can rely on his experience to locate it for you.

There is one-hour free on street parking in Park Street so a trip to Books Afloat is definitely worth a visit.

My meeting with David at NTA AUCTION HOUSE in Wyke Regis was my first visit to an auction house. The family run business has been at the site opposite Value

House since April this year but David has been holding auctions for over 20 years

David said: "We hold auctions every fortnight on a Saturday and there is always a big build up to get ready for the day. NTA is a good place to start if you are new to auctions as we have a relaxed atmosphere and there is no pressure to buy. We have a lot of regular bidders so it makes the auction a fun day out. We take items in between 10am and 4pm every day from single items to house clearances with a collection and delivery service."

Viewings are on the Friday before the auction but if you can't make it on the Friday, viewings are from 9.30am on the day of the auction.

Lots range from old to modern, new and antique; some sofas start from as little as £10. There has also been a bigger focus on catering equipment recently.

There's free parking on site so check out the lots online before your visit and see what bargains you can find.

I also met Rob at COX'S CORNER opposite Waitrose car park in Bridport. Rob and his business partner Russell took over the business a year ago and have kept the same charm it has always had but focused more on furniture.

The shop is set in an historic former Victorian ropewalk and holds 2,500 square feet of interesting pieces for the home.

From small antiques and collectables of traditional to mid-century origin there is something for everyone.

There are items from £1, to second hand items and antiques that could furnish a house.

Stock is sourced mainly locally with single items or bulk purchases considered.

After visiting Bridport market, why not make your way down and see what unique piece you can find.

Bridport Auction House

THE Auction House (Bridport) was founded in 1998 and provides an efficient and comprehensive auction and valuation service of collectables, fine art and antiques.

There are regular monthly sales of Antiques, Collectables and Household items at our Salerooms on St. Michaels Trading Estate situated in Tannery Road, off West Street Bridport, next door to the Police station.

The Sales are always on the last Friday of the month and start at 10am.

Viewing Days are on the Wednesday & Thursday prior to the sale, 9am to 5pm both days and on the morning of the sale from 9am.

The Auction House of Bridport also provides an efficient house clearance and disposal Service through its subsidiary "Saleroom 2".

It is both cost-effective and reliable. The clearance and disposal of un-commercial goods can be a minefield and we take all the worry out of what can sometimes be an unpleasant task.

Competitively priced and reliable, our team will leave a property clean and ready to sell or let by you or your estate agent.

Busby Auctioneers & Valuers

Anyone for Ginger Beer?

Two stoneware ginger beer bottles: one marked W H Burnard, Family Grocer, Bude, Home Brewed and the other C C Dornat & Co, Barnstaple, drew significant interest at Busby's second General Sale held on 5th September at their Bridport Salerooms.

Ginger Beer was stored in bottles as far back as the 1830's but these later 19th century examples obviously appealed, perhaps due to their geographical locale – the West Country, and they reached £420 via a combination of commission and telephone bidding.

Other lots in the sale to enjoy competitive bidding included a mahogany Edwardian Sheraton revival gentleman's smoking cabinet which took £80, a collection of meerschaum pipes which realised £335 and a mahogany and burr amboyna elevated secrétaire bookcase that realised an expected £350. Busby's buyer's commission is 15%.

The Alleyways Antiques Centre

The Alleyways Antiques Centre is situated at the heart of the Art & Vintage Quarter on the St Michael's Trading Estate in Bridport. Here you'll find a thriving and busy area well worth a visit with its eclectic mix of antique, vintage & collectables shops, artist studios and the wonderful Red Brick Cafe. With the biggest antiques centre on the Jurassic Coast, The Alleyways Antiques Centre, you'll be able to travel back in time and pick up anything from an old postcard to a 17th Century piece of furniture. The Quarter hosts many events, the next on Sunday 29th September is the Antiques & Vintage Sunday when all the shops and cafe are open. Taking place on the last Sunday every month from 10:00am. Complimenting the shops, the St Michael's Traders put out extra stalls with even more items to tempt you. Experience the wonders of times gone by and spend an hour or four down on the St Michael's Trading Estate in Bridport.

Open homes event shows how to save energy

TWELVE homes around Bridport, and another seven around Dorchester, opened their doors to visitors to show ways of saving energy domestically.

More than 600 visits were made during the event last weekend (September 14th-15th), organised by Transition Town Bridport and Greendord.

A range of buildings were on show from new-builds to retro-fits and were made of a range of materials from straw bales to high-tech materials.

Most of the designs focussed on ways of conserving energy through insulation, solar gain and other design features.

Sustainable methods of generation were also on display.

John Butler has built an extension of load-bearing straw bales, showing his extensive research into materials which insulate effectively without requiring much energy in their manufacture.

Many visitors were impressed, with one stating: "His ambition, excellent presentation and willingness to share information was inspiring."

Other homes contained ideas of retro-fitting insulation, and greener lifestyle choices which save energy on a day-to-day basis, with another visitor noting: "People's endeavour to keep warm in a large house have not changed in hundreds of years - thick curtains work as well as the latest gadgets."

Sam Wilberforce of Transition Town Bridport and Sally Cooke of Greendord plan to run a similar event next year, taking in a wider range of homes in town.

TTB plan to run a draft-busters workshop on November 16th in the Chapel in the Garden, East Street, to show how to reduce drafts in old homes with little expense.

Email admin@transitiontownbridport.co.uk, or come to Green Drinks from 8pm on Thursday at The Tiger Inn, Barrack Street, for more information.

INTIMATE GIG FROM INFLUENTIAL ETHAN

Ethan Johns performs at the Electric Palace this week

ETHAN Johns is an English record producer, engineer, mixer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist. He has worked with artists including Ryan Adams, Kings of Leon, Ray LaMontagne, Tom Jones, Kaiser Chiefs, Rufus Wainwright, The Boxer Rebellion, Crowded House, The Vaccines, Laura Marling, The Staves, and Crosby, Stills and Nash.

Ethan released the Ryan Adams' produced single Don't Reach Too Far on May 20th through his own Three Crows Records label. Taken from his debut solo album If Not Now Then When? the track features Ethan himself on vocals, guitar, harmonica; Ryan Adams on drums and bass; and Chris Holland on organ. It was recorded at Adams' Pax Am Studios, in Los Angeles.

If Not Now Then When? was originally released on 12" vinyl last November alongside a nationwide tour of independent record stores. The Brit-award-winning producer, whose vast production credits include The Vaccines, Kings of Leon, Ray LaMontagne, Laura Marling, and Ryan Adams to name but a few not only performed songs from the album, but also held Q&A sessions at each of these shows. A wider release on CD and digital download came out earlier this year, followed by a hugely successful headline tour of the country.

Support comes from husband and wife duo Trevor Moss & Hannah Lou...

Last November they released their third album in consecutive years. Their first duo record, after the break up of their band Indigo Moss, was self-titled and came out in 2010 on independent UK folk/Americana label Loose Music. The second was entitled 'Quality First, Last & Forever!' released on Heavenly Records (Co-op/Universal) in 2011, and the latest 'La Ferme De Fontenaille'; their third, is self-produced and self-released by their very own Anglophone Recording Company.

Ethan Johns, with support from Trevor Moss & Hannah Lou, will perform an intimate gig in the bar at Bridport's Electric Palace on Thursday, September 19th. Doors open 7pm and music starts at 8pm. Tickets cost £11 plus booking fee in advance, available online at www.electricpalace.org.uk or by calling 01308 424901.

RSVP BRING BHANGRA TO EVERSLOT

WITH musicians drawn from one family, RSVP have been spreading their popular wild vibe since the 1980s. From massive stages at Glastonbury, Womad and Larmer Tree, to concert venues around the country, they're always guaranteed to get even the most reluctant on their feet. Every show comes with an introduction to Bhangra dance with emphasis on having fun and partying Punjabi style. Now this autumn the group are headed for Dorset.

Highly entertaining and interactive they use the universal language of music and dance to communicate across all cultures and ages. Spearheading the renaissance of live Bhangra music, RSVP's unique sound is a mix of classic Indian music fused with the very latest on the global scene. Incorporating Bhangra lyrics and beats, funky bass and drums, Eastern European Gypsy guitar, a dash of Punk Rock and a top-flight string section, don't be surprised if you also get a little stand up comedy, stage jumping, water-splashing and tasteful undressing!

This tour is supported by Routes South West. RSVP will play live at Evershot Village Hall on Saturday, October 5th at 8.30pm. Tickets cost £9, £6 U18s, £25 family of four. To book or for more details call 01935 83580.

Exhibitions, music, comedy and more at ArtsFest

THIS year's Lyme Regis ArtsFest, from September 21st to 29th, centres on two group art exhibitions that are open daily from 10am-5pm.

In the Baptist Church Hall, 30 talented local artists will be exhibiting their latest work, and chatting to visitors at Meet the Artist sessions.

At the Malthouse and Town Mill Gal-eries, the resulting artwork from ArtsFest's year-long collaboration with the Lyme Regis Museum will be displayed. For this ArtsFest-Museum initiative, called re:collection, 37 artists responded in a variety of ways—from beadwork to 3D installations—to the challenge of creating new works of art inspired by objects, images or stories in the Museum. The projects of 13 of these artists were supported using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England. Two of the most ambitious will be on the Lyme seafront (Sarah Thomas's replica Bathing Machine and Deck Chairs installations) and in Uplyme (Gail Saggan's multi-disciplined The Great and the Small exhibition at her Jam Factory studio).

Moreover, the town will host an Art Trail showcasing artwork in over 100 shops and businesses, while at the Jubilee Pavilion and elsewhere around town, daily workshops and special events will be running throughout the 9-day festival. The workshops offer a host of new skills to learn, from mono-printing or beadweaving to stonebalancing or decopatching.

A special focus on all things literary provides sessions on how to get published or write life stories and no less than four chances to meet authors, including Paula Byrne, the acclaimed biographer of Jane Austen, and Sarah Singleton whose novel Dark Storm was set in 'Lyme on Sea'.

The B Sharp Busking Festival over the first weekend is a well-established jamboree for those who love and/or play music, and Lyme's Marine Theatre joins in the fun with events that bring singer Maddy Prior and comedian Lucy Porter to Lyme. The proverbial 'something for everyone' has never been truer. Full schedule and details about Lyme Regis ArtsFest can be found on its website: www.lymeregisartsfest.com.

Hardy's Landscapes

A TALK BY DR TONY FINCHAM, CHAIRMAN OF THE THOMAS HARDY SOCIETY

THOMAS Hardy was a landscape novelist, who painted enduring pictures of the natural world, which formed the stage upon which his characters acted out their tragic lives. Hardy's landscapes are at once specific and general; based on real places, but purposefully distanced and disguised. This talk explores some aspects of the Hardyan landscape and the unique contribution that Thomas Hardy made to our ability to interpret the natural world.

This is the fourth in a series of five lectures about Thomas Hardy and is part of a larger project including the National Trust and the University of Exeter. It is hoped that the more academic nature of these lectures will provide the general public and lovers of Hardy's novels with an increased connection to contemporary ideas about his work.

The talk takes place on Thursday, September 26th at 7.30pm. entry is free, but a donation of £3 is encouraged to cover costs. Everyone is welcome and there is no need to book. Doors open at 7pm.

Pamper Day in Broadwindsor

BROADWINDSOR Primary school will be hosting a Pamper and Therapy Day on Saturday, September 28th from 10.00am – 3.00pm, to help raise funds for the school.

There will be a selection of holistic and beauty treatments to de-stress and relax you, including holistic Massage, Reflexology, No Hands Chair Massage, Crystal Pyramid Chakra Balance, Nail Polish and Paint, Hair-styling (Up do's), with hair care advice from salon on the square, and yoga taster sessions.

There will also be Psychic spiritual readings, Soul Portraits, the Body Shop at Home, and Neal's Yard Remedies Organic.

If you're looking to revamp your wardrobe then you can browse a selection of designer second hand clothes that will be available to buy.

Refreshments will be served throughout the day (Teas donated by Clipper Teas) and there will be a raffle with some great prizes to be won. For more information visit <http://on.fb.me/1ekYlhi>.

GI Joe in Dorset

Theatre Show Brings Dorset's Invisible History To Life

"A BEAUTIFULLY interpreted production of a true story - a powerful and moving event" were just two of the tributes paid by enthusiastic audiences last year at the Wimborne premiere of GI Joe in Dorset, a specially written play, celebrating the presence of over 8,000 African American GIs in Dorset in 1944.

Dorset based playwrights Tony Horitz and Sharon Muiruri, of State of Play, were commissioned by local educational charity DEED (Development Education in Dorset) to create the play, GI Joe in Dorset in 2012. The script draws on research by local poet Louisa Adjoa Parker, including interviews with people about their memories of Dorset in 1944; those involved included living relatives of African American GIs.

"It has been very exciting, developing the play out of these dramatic and moving stories" said Tony Horitz. "We hope our play reflects the truth of their experience and brings their courage and love alive for young and older audiences today."

GI Joe weaves together two different stories. Pete, in 2012, is a man of few words who works hard to make a living. But a phone call out of the blue causes him to reflect on his past and re-think his identity. Meanwhile, Joe, in 1944, arrives in Dorset with his Tank regiment, the so-called Black Panthers, feeling homesick and perplexed as to why he only gets to do 'humdrum' jobs. The he meets Lily, a young Dorset girl at a Dance, and a romance quickly blossoms - only to be threatened by forces beyond their control.

"In a sense, it's a new version of the Romeo and Juliet story" adds Sharon Muiruri. "It has all the ingredients of great drama - love, conflict and friendship - with fighting, singing and dancing to link it!"

"This whole project has been amazing!" commented Louise Boston-Mammah, Programme Co-ordinator, DEED. "The impact on local people when they hear the stories and reminisce about their childhood living in Dorset during the Second World War has been genuinely moving. We wanted to bring this to people in a way they can also experience these emotions. What better way than through drama and performance".

GI Joe in Dorset will tour to Melbury Osmond Village Hall on Friday, October 11th at 7.30pm (for more details or to book call 01935 83410); Broadmayne Village Hall on Saturday, October 12th at 7.30pm (01305 854205); and Durweston Village Hall on Sunday, October 13th at 7.30pm (01258 453170).

Baz Luhrmann's stunning adaptation of F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby headed to Bridport Arts Centre

THE Great Gatsby, Baz Luhrmann's stunning adaptation of F. Scott Fitzgerald's novel it to be screened at Bridport Arts Centre. There are three copies of the book and three stunning quad posters up for grabs in a free prize draw. The film stars Carey Mulligan who is currently filming Far From the Madding Crowd in West Dorset.

The Great Gatsby follows Fitzgerald-like, would-be writer Nick Carraway as he leaves the Midwest and comes to New York City in the spring of 1922, an era of loosening morals, glittering jazz and bootleg kings. Chasing his own American Dream, Nick lands next door to a mysterious, party-giving millionaire, Jay Gatsby, and across the bay from his cousin, Daisy, and her philandering, blue-blooded husband, Tom Buchanan. It is thus that Nick is drawn into the captivating world of the super-rich, their illusions, loves and deceptions. As Nick bears witness, within and without the world he inhabits, he pens a tale of impossible love, incorruptible dreams and high-octane tragedy, and holds a mirror to our own modern times and struggles.

Leonardo DiCaprio

plays Jay Gatsby, with Tobey Maguire starring as Nick Carraway; Joel Edgerton and Carey Mulligan as Tom and Daisy Buchanan; Isla Fisher and Jason Clarke as Myrtle and George Wilson; and newcomer Elizabeth Debicki as Jordan Baker. Indian film legend Amitabh Bachchan will play the role of Meyer Wolfsheimer.

The film will be screened on the Arts Centre's state of the art digital equipment on Thursday, September 26th, 1pm & 7.30pm and Sunday, September 29th, 7.30pm. Tickets are priced £6 Adult, £5 members and Concessions and £4 under 16s, buy 5 tickets get one free.

To enter the prize draw simply give your email address to the box office when booking tickets.

Top drummer and percussionist Asaf Sirkis to give workshop and performance in Dorchester

CONSIDERED one of the greatest drummers/percussionists of our time, Asaf Sirkis leads a trio featuring Greek guitarist Tassos Spiliotopoulos and bassist Kevin Glasgow, who are touring their latest album Shepherd's Stories.

This prodigiously talented drummer/composer boasts an incredible discography and is a founder member of The Lighthouse Trio along with acclaimed saxophonist/composer Tim Garland and pianist Gwilym Simcock.

The Asaf Sirkis Trio play at Dorchester Arts Centre on Saturday, September 21st at 8pm (doors and bar open 7.30pm).

There will also be an opportunity for musicians to take part in a workshop run by Asaf Sirkis and to explore this fascinating South Indian method of teaching complex rhythms using syllables and gestures. The workshop is also on Saturday, September 21st at 4pm.

Tickets for the concert only cost £10 or £8 for members and concessions. A combined ticket which includes the concert and workshop cost £15 or £12 concessions.

For more information please phone 01305 266926, email: enquiries@dorchesterarts.org.uk, or visit the website www.dorchesterarts.org.uk.

Forest Forge Theatre present 'Free Folk' – but can they be free?

"They say it's a free country – but it never feels that way, because you never get to do what you want..."

DORCHESTER Arts autumn drama season, sponsored by Battens Solicitors, continues with Forest Forge Theatre's play 'Free Folk' about freedom - what it means and whether it can ever really be achieved.

This is another exciting production from this Hampshire-based company who brought the powerful drama 'Peeling' to Dorchester a couple of years ago.

Part thriller, part comedy and inspired by the atmospheric setting of the New Forest, Free Folk explores what happens when five strangers get trapped in a house in the forest on a dark, stormy night. Each wants to be free to fulfill their own desires...

Karen wants to get home before dark - but the forest has other ideas.

Tim wants to settle down with Hannah but Hannah wants to see the world from behind the wheel of her imaginary camper van.

Pearl wants to be left independent in the house where she was born - her son wants her to be sensible and move to a nursing home. And Shaun - if we're lucky, Shaun is a loveable rogue, wanting to make a few extra quid with a bit of mischief. But if we're unlucky - maybe Shaun is something an awful lot worse...

This imaginative production written by Gary Owen is full of surprises, encompassing both Gary's poeti-cism and dark humour. It first toured in 2010 and received wonderful feedback, summed up by this audience comment:

"Expertly and sensitively written with a real insight into the human condition... carefully directed with a real eye for truth and comedy ... and performed by a team of consummate performers".

◆ Free Folk is at Dorchester's Corn Exchange this Friday, September 20th at 8pm.

Tickets are £10 / £8 from Dorchester Arts 01305 266926 or from Tourist Information Centre 267992. For more details and to book online visit: www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

A warm welcome awaits at the Coach and Horses in South Perrott

TRAVEL to the Coach and Horses in South Perrott near Beaminster and you will find a friendly welcome and a Freehouse that has been completely transformed under new Landlady Jane Holdsworth. The pub has kept its cosy feel, with a choice of local real ales, but now boasts a much larger bar and a lovely spacious restaurant. The Inn also boasts a large beer garden, which was basking in the sunshine over the summer, as well as free pool table and a skittle alley.

The whole building has undergone major refurbishments, with improvements ongoing. However it's the accommodation side of things that have seen the biggest transformation. There are 4 B&B rooms, which now have a contemporary design with beautiful ensuite bathrooms, available from just £55 per room, per night. With plasma TV's and comfortable surroundings, it's the perfect place to unwind at the end of the day. Contractors are also very welcome to stay with The Coach and Horses an easy commute to both Bridport and Yeovil.

In the restaurant you will find some authentic pub food with a number of home cooked favourites, and classics like Steak and Chips, where you can get a lovely 10oz Sirloin with all the trimmings for just £12.95.

Being newly introduced is a senior citizens lunch twice a week, on a Tuesday and a Thursday. For just £5.95 there will be a choice of three main courses from a set menu, including a roast lunch.

Weekends will see the introduction of a chef specials night, with special dishes available that are not on the regular menu, making the most of seasonal, local produce.

The regular menu itself does changes frequently to reflect the season, but a number of the pub classics, like the steak and chips, remain on the menu throughout the year.

The Sunday Carvery remains ever popular, and provides unbeatable value. You can indulge yourself with a choice of 3 meats for £7.95, then, if you have room, enjoy a pudding for just an extra £2! Alternatively, if you want to waver from the traditional Sunday Roast, but you still want your fix of roast meat you can enjoy a Pork or Beef bap, with chips, for just £6.50.

Families are very welcome in the pub, and there is a child's menu available (suitable for children aged 8 and under), with main meals from just £4.

The Coach and Horses also have regular live music, bingo, and theme nights, with 'Chillies Indian Night' the next on the agenda on Monday 30th September. On Chillies night patrons can enjoy 2 courses of freshly prepared Indian cuisine for only £9.95 per person.

The skittle alley and function room is ideal for parties and charity functions and is free to hire if you are having drinks and/or food from the pub.

The Coach and Horses really is a hidden gem in South Perrott with so much to offer. If you're looking for a good meal with a friendly atmosphere, a Dorset get away, or some great local accommodation for your guests, then look no further. For more information visit www.dorsetbedandbreakfast.com or call 01935 891270.

Restoring the Kingfisher's realm

A talk on the rivers and streams of Bridport and the Marshwood Vale

ROGER Genge, Environment Agency, and Nick Gray, DWT, have been working for two years to enhance wildlife habitat and support fish passes. They will talk about the progress so far at a special event at Bridport Town Hall on Wednesday, September 25th.

Invasive and non invasive species, farming practices and the natural balance of river life will be matters included in this informative talk, which will be of particular interest to those who enjoy the many and varied aspects of our local rivers.

The event starts at 7.30pm, and tickets cost £7. There will also be a raffle and refreshments available. The talk is organised by Friends of Bridport Millennium Green.

For more details call 01308 423078.

Enjoy the specials menu, fine wines & real ales. Fresh food cooked using local suppliers.

Bar open all day for refreshments, teas & fresh ground coffee

Silence is Golden!

A-level students organise charity silent disco

ORGANISERS | Izzy Bosence, Fran Hall, Chris Boxall, Ruby Jenkin and Alice Neal Photo by Toby Howlett

DISCO-GOERS will be jumping to a new beat when A-level students from The Woodroffe School stage an event in aid of the UK's leading cancer charity.

When a silent disco is held at Bridport Arts Centre later this month, dancers will bop along to music heard through hi-tech headphones. The headphones use wireless technology and will replace the traditional speaker system.

The fun event will leave bystanders guessing what tune dancers are bopping along to. Various DJs will play a variety of music during the event, which is open to over-17s only.

The event is being organised by Woodroffe School students studying Applied Business and is in aid of Cancer Research UK.

The Silent Disco takes place on Saturday, September 28th, from 8pm to 1am.

Tickets cost £7, and are available on the door. For further information, visit <http://on.fb.me/152w1HW>

Othello screening at the Gateway

THE Gateway in Seaton proudly presents a live streaming of Shakespeare's 'Othello' from the National Theatre, London, on Thursday, September 26th.

Adrian Lester, last seen at the National Theatre as Henry V, takes the title role playing opposite Roy Kinnear as Lago whose recent appearances at the National Theatre include 'Hamlet' and 'Last of the Haussemans'.

Lester's role as Othello has all the dignified vulnerability one could wish for, Kinnear's Lago burns with contempt for the human race and for the beauty in other people's lives.

This production is a gripping, lucid, taut and claustrophobic interpretation of Shakespeare's tragedy.

Come and experience this great production for yourselves at the Gateway, Seaton Town Hall, by satellite from the National Theatre, London.

Doors open at The Gateway at 6pm, with the performance at 7pm. Tickets cost £12.50 in advance, or £15 on the door, available from the Gateway, Seaton Town Hall box office 01297 625699.

Kiki Dee, Andy Fairweather Low, Martin Barre and The Albion Band all set for Budleigh!

An exciting and varied programme of musical events at Budleigh's Public Hall this autumn offers something for all tastes

WITH one of the loveliest voices in popular music, Kiki Dee, accompanied by guitar virtuoso Carmelo Luggeri, performs an eclectic selection of favourite covers, recent album tracks plus the familiar hits such as Amoureuse, I've got the music in me, Star and Don't go breakin' my heart, on Saturday, October 5th in Budleigh Salterton.

On Sunday, October 27th founder member of Cardiff-based Amen Corner, Andy Fairweather Low and his band the Low Riders, perform hits from the band's back catalogue such as Bend Me, Shape Me, High in the Sky, and (If Paradise is) half as nice, songs from his A&M period such as Reggae Tune, La Booga Rooga and the pop classic, Wide-eyed and legless, the big Christmas hit of 1975, plus some favourite blues, gospel, rock and country classics. A busy musician, Andy plays with Bill Wyman's Rhythm Kings, performing with them at this year's Glastonbury Festival. He also tours regularly with Eric Clapton.

Recently he has been recording background guitar/vocals for compatriot Tom Jones, toured France with Procul Harum keyboard-man Gary Brooker and tours Japan in September. On Sunday, November 10th guitar legend Martin Barre brings his 6-piece band to the venue.

Lead guitar with Jethro Tull for 44 years, Martin's distinctive playing has been a major factor in their long and successful career, which has produced album sales exceeding 60 million units worldwide.

Martin's playing on Aqualung earned him many plaudits while his work on the album Crest of a Knave earned him a Grammy in 1988.

Martin has worked with many artists including Paul McCartney, Phil Collins, Gary Moore, Jo Bonamassa and Mark Knopfler, but with Tull currently on sabbatical, Martin's band plays a mix of his favourite blues and rock standards, seasoned with classic tracks from the Tull catalogue - some not performed for many years.

Lastly, on Sunday, December 15th, The Albion Christmas Band, comprising Fairport Convention originals Ashley Hutchings (bass/vocals) and Simon Nicol

(guitar/vocals) teamed with the lovely Kellie While (guitar/vocals) and Simon Care (melodeon/vocals/egg-dance) bring their seasonal show of songs, tunes, readings and yuletide merriment.

A Bar and food is available at all the above gigs.

For tickets to any of the shows call 07891 663044 or 01395 443419 (cards accepted).

Symonds and Sampson Beamminster office refit

Jeremy Smith, Manager of Symonds & Sampson estate agents in Beamminster is seen below with James Pellow, Partner in Symonds & Sampson, formally opening the completely renovated Beamminster office. Jeremy commented "We have enjoyed an excellent start to this financial year selling plenty of properties in Beamminster and the surrounding villages, indeed our sales figures are more than double the same period of last year. We felt the office could do with a "freshen up". Also we were able to create a secondary office at the rear as we need further space, due to the fact that we have recently added a new staff member, Kate Wiscombe, in order to cope with the huge levels of property sales that we were achieving.

James added "its incredible now when you drive round Beamminster and the surrounding area to see the amount of Symonds & Sampson for sale and sold boards, it certainly appears that Jeremy and his team are doing something right"! The Partners of Symonds & Sampson were therefore more than happy to invest further in our now highly successful Beamminster office.

Jeremy concluded "We are always looking to add more homes to our property portfolio, so please contact myself or any of my colleagues on 01308 863100 for your free market appraisal".

Spacious conversion of a Victorian school house

Jeremy Smith, manager of Symonds & Sampson Estate Agents in Beamminster is currently marketing a fine detached property which lies in the desirable village of Hooke. Jeremy commented "this is a wonderful particularly spacious conversion of a detached Victorian school house which stands in good size gardens, backing onto a stream". The accommodation is arranged over two floors as follows:- Storm porch, reception hall, dual aspect kitchen, living room, drawing room with staircase rising to a mezzanine floor, morning room, inner hallway, dining room, bathroom, sun lounge, study, bedroom 4. On the first floor is a landing, three further bedrooms and a second bathroom. Outside the property stands in good size lawned gardens backing onto the river Hooke, whilst there is also a very useful 18' x 16' detached out-building, extensive parking and a garage. Symonds & Sampson are quoting an asking price of £565,000 for the freehold, but serious offers will be considered. Why not contact Symonds and Sampson on 01308 863100 and arrange your viewing today.

CHARMOUTH - £395,000

Beautifully presented semi detached modern house with four bedrooms including one en suite. Easily maintained with modern neutral decor in really nice condition, this property would make an ideal busy family home or an easy holiday escape either private or buy to let investment. Fully double glazed with gas central heating and well insulated providing energy efficiency. The bright south facing kitchen has enough room for informal dining with glazed french doors straight out into the private paved pretty garden. All white goods included in sale. Opportunity to purchase the property furnished by separate negotiation. EPC - D

CHARMOUTH - £399,995

A delightful detached five bedroom character property set on three floors located within the village centre, set well back from the Street and offering a stylish period home with a modern twist. Pretty walled courtyard garden to rear. Parking for up to three cars to front drive. Full UPVC double glazing and gas central heating. EPC - F

CHARMOUTH - £174,950

Larger than average GARDEN with Rural Views. Three bedroom end terrace house offered for sale with a minimum 50% of the SHARED OWNERSHIP in association with Magna Housing. Opportunity to purchase further Freehold of the property. EPC - D

CATHERSTON - £425,000

A substantial and handsome house, for sale as part of Catherston Manor, the 500 year old historic Manor House in an idyllic elevated setting in rural Catherston Leweston. The property now provides the benefit of gas central heating, modern bathrooms in a period style and fitted kitchen together with a fine artist's studio or office/playroom. From the sitting room and main bedrooms the outlook is superb, offering views across the valley to Charmouth, the National Trust Stonebarrow and the sea.

CHARMOUTH - £185,000

AMAZING COASTAL VIEWS ACROSS LYME BAY towards PORTLAND BILL. Clifftop Park is a small development of individual Holiday Lodges, located at the end of a private road with STUNNING PANORAMIC VIEWS along the JURASSIC COASTLINE. PLEASE NOTE: To retain the peace and tranquility of the sites, the Lodges are offered for sale as holiday homes and can not be commercially let.

CHARMOUTH - £265,000

A traditional white washed stone built cottage dating back to the 1800s offering a wealth of character and a really delightful setting on the elevated western edge of the coastal village of Charmouth. Modernised to a good standard the cottage offers flexible usage as two or three bedrooms with one of the rooms on the ground floor. A real feature of the property is its wonderful position looking out to open fields to the rear and over the village to the front with views to Stonebarrow Cliffs, and Marshwood Vale. Mature cottage gardens surround the house on three sides offering privacy. The frontage faces east and the back garden west providing light and sun most of the day. EPC - E

West Dorset, Weymouth & Portland Joint Local Plan Consultation - Extended

In August 2013 West Dorset District Council and Weymouth & Portland Borough Council began consulting on changes to the Joint Local Plan. It has come to our attention that there were some errors in the documents that were being consulted on, which could cause some confusion to respondents. We apologise for any difficulties this may have caused.

The consultation is now extended until 25 October 2013 and corrected documents are available at www.dorsetforyou.com/newlocalplan/west/weymouth. All valid representations already received on the consultation will be accepted, but if you wish to change your comments based on the revised documents please let us know.

Copies of the plan can also be viewed at the council offices between 8.30am to 5pm Monday to Thursday and 8.30am to 4.30pm Fridays.

If you prefer you can e-mail your comments to s.policy@westdorset-weymouth.gov.uk or write to us at:

Fiat 500L MPW on sale in the UK

FOLLOWING the successful launch of the FIAT 500L in March and the 500L Trekking in June, the newest member of the 500L range now goes on sale in the UK: The new FIAT 500L MPW.

The 500L MPW is the perfect expression of FIAT's know-how in making space-efficient cars with a twist - combining the charm and agility of the FIAT 500 with the comfort and contents of a C-segment car and the space and the versatility of a people carrier.

In either five-seat or optional 5+2-seat* configuration, the FIAT 500L MPW offers two compelling packages: As a five-seat vehicle the FIAT 500L MPW is a credible alternative to a traditional C-segment estate, combining exceptional roominess and comfort with an impressive load capacity of 638 litres and all within a footprint at least 20cm shorter overall.

As a people carrier it is the most compact 5+2-seater* in its segment, measuring just 4,352mm in length, 1784mm in width and 1,667mm in height, while still offering the same kind of load-carrying versatility of the five-seat version when its rearmost seats are folded flat and stored neatly under the boot the floor.

The new Fiat 500L MPW will be offered in two trim levels: Pop Star and Lounge. Equipment highlights on the Pop Star version include air conditioning, cruise control, 16-inch alloy wheels, a 5-inch touchscreen infotainment system with Uconnect, six airbags, a full suite of stability and traction control safety systems as well as rear parking sensors.

The Lounge version builds on the Pop Star's high specification level by adding rear electric windows, front fog lights, dual-zone automatic climate control, automatic headlamps, rain sensors, front seats with seat back tables and storage nets, an electro-chromatic rear view mirror, rear privacy glass, floor mats and an electric glass sunroof.

The new FIAT 500L MPW engine range consists of four power plants: The 95hp 1.4-litre petrol (5-seat only); the 105hp 0.9 TwinAir petrol; the 85hp 1.3 MultiJet (also available with the Dualogic automatic transmission) and the 105hp 1.6-litre MultiJet. A total of nine different exterior colour choices are available, plus a variety of contrasting roof and mirror colour combinations, as well as a range of alloy wheels in different sizes, styles and colours.

DVLA personalised registrations aiming for another successful auction

DVLA Personalised Registrations will be hoping to emulate one of its "most successful three-day auctions in recent times" when it returns to Mercedes Benz World in Surrey on Thursday, September 26.

The Agency returns to the Weybridge attraction little over 12 months on from its first visit during which it raised more than £4 million for the Treasury.

And with a catalogue that includes an array of 1,500 registrations reflecting first and surnames, initials, sports, businesses and car models, the Agency is hopeful to succeed in its quest, boosted by the fact it is providing a tremendous experience for car fans and whole families alike.

In addition to free admission to the Mercedes museum enabling guests to get up close and personal to an incredible array of cars, exhibitions and films, registered bidders will also be entitled to free "hot lap" passenger rides around Mercedes' own test track circuit in the very latest AMG Mercedes sports cars.

AU13 REY, CA12 OLS, C111 LLA and RO13 ERT are proving popular first name-related registrations in the sale while BR11 GGS, FA12 ROW and HO13 SON are drawing interest from customers wanting a registration to reflect their surnames. For sport there is GOA 111E and businesses there's a distinctive child-like appearance with LU11 ABY, MUM 55Y and OKB 48Y. Of the totally quirky registrations being auctioned, H111 PPY and HER 8S arguably head the field.

Jody Davies, DVLA Personalised Registrations' Events Manager, said: "Having raised more than £14 million from the four auctions of 2013, the year has continued to be yet another successful one for the Agency and, if we manage to replicate the September sale of 2012 later this month that will surely continue.

"Our 2012 September sale was hailed as one of our most successful sales in recent times, not just because of the figure raised, but also because of the tremendously positive feedback we received from our customers and guests. Again we have chosen the venue purely on its strength of being able to offer a marvellous experience for the entire family."

▲ Double take... the A45 AMG personalised registration featured in DVLA Personalised Registrations' September sale being held at Mercedes Benz World in Surrey benefits the A45 AMG sportscar, arguably one of the most sought after cars on our roads today.

DVLA's forthcoming auction will consist of a total of 1,500 registrations, all chosen to offer a selection to suit all tastes, styles and budgets including: 222 A (reserve - £3,000), AB12 AHM (£900), AMY 848E (£400), AU13 REY (£950), A45 AMG (£900), BAC 80N (£400), BEA 777Y (£400), BR11 GGS (£1,000), CA12 OLS (£900), CH11 SEA (£900), CL63 AMG (£1,500), C44 MPA (£350), C111 LLA (£400), DOG 1X (£700), DRE 33M (£400) D111 ONS (£400), 850 E (£2,600), ELV 15V (£400), E110 BEN (£350), FA12 ROW (£900), FRU 17T (£900), GL63 AMG (£1,500), HES 84D (£350), H111 PPY (£400), 85 KEN (£1,900), LEO 1G (£700), LU11 ABY (£900), MA12 THA (£900), MCL 412C (£400), MEL 1B (£700), MUM 55Y (£400), PD51 NGH (£1,000), P11 PES (£400), RAJ 80Y (£400), RO13 ERT (£2,000), SLS 63 (£1,900), SU11 TAN (£1,500), TOM 11M (£500), TUR 80N (£400), 1 USM (£2,900), 900 W (£2,800), WRX 70Y (£350), XKR 80Y (£400), X430 FER (£300).

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

Wins for Beaminster and Lyme Champions Winsham hit for 10 at Street!

Premier

MILLWEY RISE 1 W & M CHINNOCK 3
TWO early goals put the Chinnocks on the way to their first points on their return to the Premier division.

A foul on Dan Harvey by Millwey full-back Haydn Lewis allowed Damian Hart to slot home a third minute penalty. This was followed by a Mark Cavley strike in the 11th minute.

With Ben Turner headed off to play for Axminster Town, Rise pressed pick-of-the-league centre-back Elliott Dyer into a midfield role and it was Dyer who raised hope of a home fight back when he netted 10 minutes form time.

But these were extinguished when Luke Williams lobbed home deep into injury time.

Millwey have also lost the services of talented frontman Sam Dibling who is trying his luck with Tiverton Town.

COMBE RES 0 CREWKERNE TOWN 5

A RICHARD Crabb goal gave the Tigers a slender lead at the interval at Slades Cross.

The visitors went up a gear after the turnaround and Crabb added a second before Pete Symes smashed home a long-range scorcher into the top corner. Top-scorer Jamie Spurdle took his season's tally up to eight with a late double.

LYME REGIS 3 ILMINSTER TOWN RES 1

LYME Regis began life under new manager Tim Edwards with a three-point haul over Iminster Town Reserves at the Davey Fort.

The new look Seasiders, without a Caddy or a Batey in their ranks for the first time in nine years, had a new look about them and showed glimpses of real potential.

Lyme took the lead in the ninth minute when Julien Simier put Sam Jones away down the left wing. The midfielder, who looks set to have a big impact on proceedings this season, skipped down the flank before crossing for Jack Durrant to tap-in.

But some over casual play in the back line allowed livewire striker Taylor Jefferson to rasp home a low 20 yard equaliser into the bottom corner five minutes later.

The Seasiders were forced to re-organise soon after when newly appointed skipper Matt Laing was forced off with a re-occurring ankle problem.

Vice-captain Mark Bailey slipped into the heart of the defence with Ben Whittington taking his place in the midfield.

The remainder of the first-half saw few chances created by either side with Lyme's pick-of-the league defender Kieron White going closest with a header from a corner that flew just wide.

The Blues almost took the lead in the 52nd minute when Luke Clifton was caught in possession but 'keeper Chris Higgs did well to block Jefferson from close range.

Midway through the half Iminster striker Luke Woodard headed narrowly wide but the hosts' second was just around the corner.

Simier did well to pick his way through the visitors and pulled the ball back from the byline to Lee Cleal who poked home from six-yards out.

Jones then smashed a 25-yarder that beat 'keeper Josh Lee but clipped the crossbar.

At the other end White erred and Rob Sutton fired wide when well-placed and Jefferson did likewise with a one-on-one opportunity.

But The Seasiders looked the more likely to add to their tally. Joe Bond's hooked volley was well saved by Lee but the gloveman could do nothing to keep out a superb 20 yarder from Jones that clipped the foot of the upright before zipping into the net.

There was nearly some icing on the cake from Lyme with Bailey crossing well for Whittington to launch a diving header that drifted just wide.

PERRY STREET 10 WINSHAM UNITED 0

WINSHAM United suffered their biggest defeat for more than ten years as they were thrashed at Tatworth on Saturday.

Tormentor-in-chief was Liam Riste who netted a hat-trick in the first 14 minutes. Riste ended up with four while Jay Bailey bagged two and there were singles for; Harry Lemon, Ryan Mason, Dan Harvey and Darren Spurdle against his old club.

SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 1 BEAMINSTER 2

BEAMINSTER were another team to hand their new manager three points in his opening outing at the helm.

Joe Singleton put Matt Hughes' side ahead with a first-half strike. The lead was doubled when Josh Hunter volleyed home from a corner midway through the second period.

A free-kick converted by Jon Spendlow saw the hosts grab a foothold but this was ended when defender Kris Hastings was shown a straight red card by referee Simon Salter for a two-footed lunge.

BEAMINSTER RES 0 LYME REGIS RES 5

LYME Regis completed back-to-back away win for the first time in three and half years as they put hosts Beaminster Reserves.

Steve Batey tapped-in to put the Seasiders ahead before brother Mark scrambled home to double the advantage.

A looping overhead effort from Pete Peacock made the result safe on the half hour and Steve Batey made it 4-0 at the interval.

Steve Batey rounded off the scoring, and his hat-trick from the penalty spot in the last minute after substitute Ryan Fifer had been felled.

PYMORE 3 FORTON RANGERS 4

PYMORE's wait for their first point on their return to division one continues after they let slip a 3-1 lead against Forton Rangers at St Mary's.

Goals from Matt Tither, Orrin Newbury and Cameron Murrell appeared to have put the hosts in control. But Rangers battled back with strikes from Dave Fowler (2) and Lee Richardson (2).

Round-up

A LATE goal from Ashley Smith saw South Petherton clinch a hard-fought 3-2 win after hosts Farway had fought back from 2-0 down.

Division Two

CHARMOUTH P SOUTH PETHERTON P

THE Robins were left kicking their heels after South Petherton Reserves failed to raise a team for the game at Barrs Lane.

WAYTOWN HOUNDS 2 DOWLISH & DON 1

TWO goals from in-form Jon Legg saw Waytown Hounds continue their promising start to the new season.

The Hounds went ahead after 20 minutes, when Legg cracked a left foot shot from the edge of the area that curled over the 'keeper and into the net. Soon after Legg took his tally to six in two when he squeezed a shot under the visiting gloveman after being put through by Leigh Hansford.

Dowlish rallied after the break and got themselves back into the game with a Matt Vinnal goal on the hour but the hosts held on to take the win.

James Loveridge had a great game in the centre of midfield, but the Man-of-the-Match award went to Tom Knott, who was in fine form at centre-back.

Division Three

LYME BANTAMS 2 SHEPTON RESERVES 2

LYME Bantams' joint-player manager Darren Poole was relatively pleased to see his side remain unbeaten after a second successive 2-2 draw - this time against newly promoted Shepton Beauchamp Reserves.

The game started badly for the hosts with left-back Jedd Whittington forced off to hospital for stitches in a cut above his eye after an accidental clash of heads with team mate Sean Stewart.

Lyme took the lead in the 34th minute when James Maidment crossed for Jason Hawker to head home at the back stick.

Fred Thomson made it 2-0 ten minutes after the turnaround and new signing Nick Stavri went close soon after.

But The Seasiders ran out of steam and the visitors pounced with goals from Craig Lodge and Aaron Stayner in the last 20 minutes.

Round-up

BRAD-LEE Miller and Bryan Garrett (4) both scored hat-tricks as Millwey Reserves (4-2 v Barrington Res) and Chard Utd Res (6-5 v Drimpton) were both among the goals.

Over at Jocelyn Park goals from Andy Dymond (2), Stuart Weir (2) and Josh Short earned Hawkchurch United a 5-2 win at Chard Rangers.

Horseshoe Lane on Saturday.

The Thorns stormed into a 2-0 lead only for Niall Fifer to halve the deficit.

The hosts hit back after the break to lead 4-1. But the Swallows rolled-up their sleeves and goals from Liam Aldworth, Jack Borgeat and a Tom Fouracre penalty squared things up at 4-4.

The visitors were then caught out chasing a winner and Thorncombe bagged scored in the last minute.

Gary Parsley (2), Liam male (2) and Stuart Packer scored for the hosts.

DEVON INTERMEDIATE CUP - R1

UPLYME 1 SAMPFORD PEVERELL 4

TWO goal in as many minutes ended Uplyme's interest in the Devon Intermediate cup for another season.

After a good opening the half-hour the Swallows defence was caught out of position and the visitors took the lead.

Two minutes later they struck again. Adam Neale missed a good chance to level before the break but the game was sealed when Mark Taylor was penalised for a foul in the box, a decision which was hotly disputed by the hosts, and the resulting spot-kick made it 3-0.

Substitute Jon Davies pulled one back in the 65th minute and Tom Chapple hit the bar moments later but Peverell bagged a fourth 10 minutes from time.

FRIENDLY: DORSET FA SELECT 3

PERRY STREET & DISTRICT LEAGUE SELECT 0

THERE were no complaints from PSDL Pick-of-the-League manager Karl Diment as he saw his side defeated at Bridport on Thursday evening.

Diment said: "They were much fitter and faster than us. Like us, their players have only played one match in their league, so we've no excuses there."

However, they did get together for a training session beforehand and this, added to us missing five lads who did so well in last season's Mavis Tate cup winning team, may have played a part.

Diment was hopeful of arranging more friendlies for the squad over the course of the season.

PSDL team: W.Meech, K.White (both Lyme Regis), E.Dyer (Millwey Rise), J.Manley (Crewkerne Town), S.Bourne (S.Petherton), M.Bailey, S.Jones (both Lyme Regis), P.McCormack, J.Spurdle

LYME REGIS SEA ANGLING CLUB - The Big Fish

Big Fish is big success! Heroes helped

THE Big Fish Event was held in Lyme Regis at 12noon on Friday, August 16th and ran through to 9pm on Saturday, August 17th.

For a £10 entry fee (£4 for juniors) competitors in the event staged by Lyme Regis Sea Angling Club were able to fish whenever they wished within that 33-hour period.

Baillie Gifford, kindly donated the majority of the prize money all entry fees went to the Help for Heroes charity.

In addition, several collections were made during the week in and around Lyme Regis area for Help for Heroes.

The weather was better than forecast at the start on Friday, but although Mullet, Ballan Wrasse, Bull Huss, Dogfish were caught other species such as Bass, Garfish and Mackerel were proving elusive.

There was particular difficulty in getting Pouting and Mackerel in size to register a claim.

Unfortunately Saturday's weather was very poor with high winds and heavy rain that kept many anglers at home.

Those hardy fishermen that braved the elements enjoyed some success fishing at the far end of Monmouth beach.

One pleasing thing to note was that nine juniors took part and they enjoyed some success in breaking one LRSAC club record and having many fish that were just under size.

In fact one young lady lost the only Garfish to be caught when it fell off the hook just as she was pulling it in on to the Cobb's North Wall.

As usual with this event those anglers who targeted specific fish and specific times to fish, seemed to enjoy most success.

One competitor who didn't finish work until 6pm on the final day was about to give up at 8pm when he suddenly remembered where he might get a fish.

With ten minutes to go in the match he caught the only Bass caught in the competition and won £100, proving that it's always worth fishing up to the end of time in a match.

Presentations were made at the Cobb Arms and the winners were as follows:

£100 Best Ballan Wrasse 1,944gms (4.28lbs) (107.17% specimen) Nigel Hill

£100 Best Bass 1,178gms (2.59lbs) (27.34% specimen) Toby Guest

£100 Best Bull Huss 1,016gms (2.24lbs) (28.00% specimen) Simon Skinner

£100 Best Garfish None weighed in

£100 Best L.S. Dogfish 1,030gms (2.27lbs) (90.83% specimen) Terry Hartnell

£100 Best Mackerel None weighed in

£100 Best Mullet (Golden) 940gms (2.07lbs) (138.24% specimen) Darren Herbert

£100 Best Pouting 232gms (0.51lbs) (34.12% specimen)

Ban Brownley £200 First Prize Mullet (Golden Grey) 940gms (2.07lbs) (138.24% specimen) Darren Herbert

£100 Second Prize Ballan Wrasse 1,944gms (4.28lbs) (107.17% specimen) Nigel Hill

£50 Third Prize Mullet (Golden Grey) 712gms (1.57lbs) (104.71% specimen).

Darren Herbert kindly donated all of his £350 winnings to Help for Heroes.

The Tackle Box Shop kindly donated a boat rod for a raffle for all those who took part and the lucky winner was Andy Hughes.

The organisers are pleased to announce that the final total of £1,970 has been collected for Help for Heroes.

The organising committee would like to thank all those people who generously gave up their time to make this such a successful event.

LATE CATCH: Toby Guest with his last minute winning Bass.

Motor Racing - Woolbridge Motor Club

Hill climb speedsters head to Charmouth

THE third Woolbridge Motor Club speed hill climb event at the Manor Farm Holiday Park in Charmouth takes place this weekend.

Sponsored for the second year by View From Publishing the event has attracted a good quality entry especially in the racing car divisions where it is expected the winners of the two meetings will come from.

Dave Sims defends his 2012 crown in the Ralt RT33/34 he shares with his father Roy.

The Torbay duo will face stern opposition from the Johns, Opie and Burton in their older two litre Ralt RT3 as well as Yeovil's Ian Cameron who took a victory at Manor Farm earlier this year as well as Roger Cock, also from Yeovil and a previous winner in his Pilbeam MP54.

There will no shortage of spectacle in the over 1800cc Sports Libre class with Bill and Matt Oliver campaigning their Mazda RX7, complete with seven litre engine, against the five litre V8 powered Pilbeam MP43 sports racer of Rod Thorne.

Charminster-based Thorne, competing for the first time this year, with Shillingstone's Andrew Forsyth getting to drive the machine on both days.

The Rally car class sees Craig Moore from Lyme Regis take his Ford Cortina GT up against the Vauxhall Corsa of Forrest Eyles.

Meanwhile, Sherborne's Graham Vingoe, driving his Caterham Superlight 'R' and a recent winner at Wiscombe Park, will face Roger Coote (Ginetta G4) and Chris Davis (Lotus 7) in the 1400-1800 division of the Road Going Specialist Production Car class.

The larger capacity split of the Specialist Production Class features the Sylva Riot of Stewart Green from Frampton who will take on the rapid Westfields of Mike Williams and the class record holder, Andy Cawsey.

Another Westfield pairing - Geoff and Graham Blake - return to the track following recent damage to the car.

The Weymouth duo will target a win in the Modified Specialist Production class whilst Geoff will seek to regain the class record which is currently held by Welshman Mike Rudge.

Of particular interest to those who favour cars from yesteryear will be Rory Weaver's Riley 1.5.

The Weymouth driver will take his sixties machine up against more contemporary opposition in the Road Going category.

The Manor Farm track is the only speed hill climb venue in Dorset, so don't miss this opportunity to see the local drivers take on the opposition from across the southern counties and the Channel Islands. This is a great day out for all the family.

Gates open at 10am on both days, and admission is only £6 each each day with accompanied children under 14 going free.

Car parking is also free and there will be catering on site.

Additionally, due to the event being run on a holiday park the toilet facilities are permanent buildings and not the temporary units normally associated with outdoor events.

Car parking is free as is transfer to the competitor's enclosure.

For access to the Manor Farm hill climb at please leave the A35 at the eastern edge of the village and proceed west along 'The Street' following the orange 'Woolbridge' arrows which will be on the roadside verges.

■ TOP CLASS: The Sylva Riot of Frampton's Stewart Green is typical of the machinery contesting the Road-Going Specialist Production Car classes.

SCRUM-DOWN - RUGBY ROUND-UP

Off to a flier! Win triple for Blues

BOTH Bridport team's made a winning start to the season, both victories proving a great boost for differing reasons.

The 2nd XV suffered a torrid time last season with multiple cancellations due to the appalling weather and having to concede some fixtures due to lack of numbers, and a lot of hard work was done in rebuilding the situation during the summer.

This included former club chairman Wayne Munro taking over the captaincy at the age of 53!

Munro who has also been Junior Chairman and a past Clubman of the Year jointly with his wife Angela, prepared for the season by completing several 10k charity runs throughout the summer, and had the satisfaction of leading his side to a 17-7 win over Blandford 2nds in Dorset & Wilts Four at the Brewery Ground.

Meanwhile the 1st XV won 22-13 at Frome in their first Dorset & Wilts One (S) league game of the season, despite the trauma of their hired minibus first suffering a puncture and then blowing the head gasket seven miles from the ground.

The Under 16's made it three out of three with a good win at Oakmedien's.

FROME 13 BRIDPORT 22

BRIDPORT got off to a winning start with a solid win against well-drilled opposition.

Although the hosts were better in the scrum and disrupted the Bridport line out, the Blues stuck to their task and with stand-in captain Dave Cutting, playing out of position at scrum half, constantly disrupting the opposition's play.

In an evenly matched contest with lots of hard tackles and good defence from both teams, Cutting scored two tries and fly half Rory Greening, also playing out of position, touched down and kicked two conversions and a penalty to give the Blues victory.

There was a great return from Timmy Edwards although he received a yellow card for constant infringing, while Ayorinde Fraser also picked up a soft yellow for apparently slowing the ball down.

A Frome player also picked up a yellow for foul play in what was a competitive game.

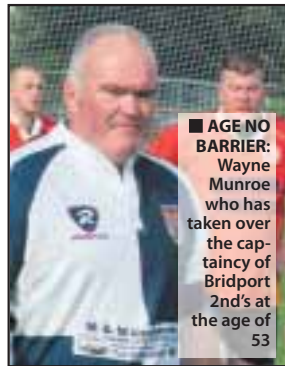

Captain Oz Sullivan said: "There were lots of positives to take from this game, but still more commitment is required at training before Saturday's home fixture against East Dorset who beat us in the cup two weeks ago.

BRIDPORT 2ND 17 BLANDFORD 2ND 7

THIS was a real tonic for the club after the adversities of last season, although they had a disappointing start when Tom Milton split his head open in the first ten minutes and had to go to hospital in Dorchester.

Led by Wayne Munro, young Will Challis put Bridport ahead with an unconverted try, but Blandford responded just before the break with a Phil Meaden converted try to take the lead.

The Blues took control in the second

■ AGE NO BARRIER: Wayne Munro who has taken over the captaincy of Bridport 2nd's at the age of 53 half however and although Mark Gough didn't convert his try he was successful when Mark Botton scored later to give them victory in a first outing for a side composed of youth and senility.

This Saturday Bridport 2nds are away to Weymouth 3rds.

OKEMEDIANS U16s 0 BRIDPORT U16s 31

BRIDPORT U16s recorded a good victory in their first game of the season. The highlights were some excellent kicking from Freddie Warren and the play of Steve Davis who almost had a hat-trick of tries.

Coaches Jason Kidd and Tony Dommet were very pleased with the way the boys adapted so quickly to the full length game at this age level, and the revised laws on scrum and line out.

Mark Broad Fund inviting applications

THE Mark Broad Fund is again inviting applications for assistance from up and coming youngsters, whether from individuals or clubs.

Since 2004, the fund has raised around £40,000 which has been awarded to a wide range of applicants in sports of all kinds, to assist them with the ever rising costs of their chosen activities.

Anyone wishing to apply should contact Colin Willcox, a trustee, for an application form on 07879 840862. Applications should be received by October 19th.

Although previous recipients of assistance can re-apply, new applicants will take precedence when the trustees consider this year's awards.

In the meantime, the Mark Broad six-a-side knockout competition was held recently at the Symene Sports Field and raised £270.

Wins for Neil...and Neil

Lyme Regis Golf

with Richard Jackman

IN the men's September

Stableford Division One was won in fine style by Neal Cullen 43 points with Todd Larcombe just shading second place from Roger Turner on countback, both on 37 points. Division Two saw Neil Thomas win with 41 points from Richard Edghill, 39 points and Simon Leech 3rd with 37 points.

The weather and golf both turned up trumps for the Ladies Invitation Day 4-ball better-ball as Lyme's lady captain Jenny Scott and partner Jan

Warner-Booth (Wind-whistle) scored a wonderful 47 points to take 1st place.

In 2nd were Julie Duke & Shirley Horsburgh (East Devon) with 44 who beat Prue Russell & Rosemary Fife (Clevedon) on countback. Jean Falconer & Sue Hyde (Honiton) won the best front nine with 25 points while 24 points won the best back nine for Rosie Jackman & Viv Gill (Bridport).

Nearest the pin for the visitors was Jo Lloyd-Davies (Tiverton), while Jenny Scott won it for Lyme and Sandra Barclay was the 'Twos' winner.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

Bridport the bridesmaids again!

BRIDPORT with Stuart Broom

DESPITE taking nine points from Lyme Regis in County League Division One, Bridport's men had to settle for runners-up again.

Brian Rumble's four won 15-13 while Chris Thorne's quartet won four of the last five ends to finish 19-17 with Bill Payne's rink drawing 16-16.

Two evenings previously they had gone down to Dorchester 39-59 only Bill Payne's four recording an 18-13 success.

Bridport's ladies finished their County League season in third spot after having been at the foot of the table in the first two months, finishing their programme in convincing style by taking nine points away at Broadstone with a 64-53 victory.

Melody Watts' four recorded a 22-13 success and Margaret Clapp's quartet won 18-16 with Sue Hosking's rink drawing 24-24.

At home to West Moors they won on all three rinks 70-52; Barbara Iversen's foursome winning four of the last five ends to finish 28-19 and Margaret Clapp's four won 21-16. Sue Hosking's rink completed the whitewash 21-17.

The club have also been very active on the mixed friendly scene.

They entertained City of Wells winning 111-66 and then took four rinks to Seaton where they recorded a 79-63 victory over the home team.

Next visitors to Priory Lane were Congresbury with Bridport winning a close encounter 70-69. Tiverton West End brought six rinks and ended Bridport's winning streak by going away 133-111 victors.

A rare excursion into Hampshire saw the West Dorset club visit Fordingbridge where they achieved a 132-72 success and the visit of long time friendly opponents Exmouth Madeira to Priory Lane saw them record a 121-116 success over the home club.

BRIDPORT INDOOR

ALAN Barr, Brian Toms and Adrian Legg's Team G held on to top spot in the Morning League, an early seven count sending them on to a 18-7 win.

Barry Mapson, Derek Fitzgerald and Edna Cumberland's Team A are right on their heels after a 2,5,2,1,1 finish gave them a 15-6 win over Team D.

They could have taken top spot but were beaten 22-7 by Tony Harrison, Bernard Waterman and Mike Long's Team F.

Brian Cattell, Penny Pither and Harrison gave Team F another two points, pipping Team J 11-10.

Ann Harris, Roy Gill and Brian Baker's Team D still need a point to win the Evening League with two matches left.

They were 12-4 up against Team C this week, but it took a wonderful wood from Harris on the last end to see them hang on 12-11.

David Drake, Waterman and Brian Legg's Team G kept up their challenge by beating Team L 16-5.

Phil Tattershall, Gordon Lee and Richard Meech's Team B ended Team E's hopes, winning 15-10; Meech making a welcome return to the club after a long layoff, getting back to his brilliant best.

Sub Brian Walsh, Beryl Stork and Clive Baynes Team H had the comeback of the week against Team K. Losing 4-11 they finished 5,3,2,2,1 to win 17-11.

John Pestelle, Tony Sharood and Edna Cumberland's Team A could pinch runner-up spot after a 3,3 finish gave them an 18-11 win over Team F, but they will need to win their last two and for Team G to lose their last two.

LYME REGIS with Paul Moffitt

THIS has been a very successful week for the Club. Not only have the ladies managed to avoid relegation but, the men have regained their slot in the Championship league.

From what looked like a hopeless case for the ladies, they managed a whitewash visiting Sherborne who were already firmly settled in the relegation slot.

Lyme's nearest rivals, Wellworthy, somehow managed to drop 10 points against Dorchester thus leaving the Lyme ladies the challenge of securing four points away to Greenhill in order to avoid the drop!

The ladies put in a barnstorming performance to get all 10 points on offer and secure a further season in the top division.

The men had left themselves the task of securing at least seven points against mid-table Portland Victoria in the last game of the season.

The squad played with flair and conviction and humbled Portland Victoria with a 10-point drubbing. This means that the men will also be back in the top echelon for next season.

Added to these successes, was a fine win in the Dorset Women's Bowling League Drawn Pairs competition by Nola Stephens & Diana Courtenay-Smith.

They overcame opposition from Broadstone in the semi's to squeeze home 13-12. The final proved to be a little easier when the Lyme pair eased past Swanage to secure the title.

Football - the early season news

Bees finally show their sting in four goal rampage

BRIDPORT 4 LONGWELL GREEN SPORTS 0
Toolstation Premier - att: 91

BRIDPORT finally found the form that has been eluding them so far this season with a convincing victory that seemed unlikely at half-time, when despite dominating the game, the nearest they came was when a Dan Wise effort was cleared off the line after half an hour.

However, a goal immediately after the break lifted open the floodgates and the Bees went on to score four without reply.

Assistant-manager Kevin Leigh kept faith with the 11 that finished the game at Plymouth Parkway which meant starts for Matt Morley and Ashley Staines in place of Russell Legg and Max Buckler who were on the bench. He also switched to a 4-4-2 formation.

Bridport started well and forced a number of corners without any success.

However, they continued to dominate the game with Chris Luke and Darren Watts dictating play in midfield and almost took the lead on 31 minutes through Wise before Tom Richardson who led the line well along with Wise in support, headed straight at the keeper from eight yards as they looked to endorse their dominance.

Meanwhile, the home defence shut out the Sports attack, although they did get the ball in the net through Dan Hunt but it was ruled out for offside.

Bridport finally made the breakthrough they richly deserved a minute after the restart when Richardson won the ball before releasing Wise who curled his volley around Dan Jackson in the Sports' goal.

The gloveman then had to save from Richardson and Morley as the Bees went looking for a second.

This came on 55 minutes when Wise turned provider, feeding Chris Clarke down the line who beat two defenders before rifling his shot past Jackson.

Longwell became agitated as they were run ragged and picked up three bookings for dissent just after the hour; the last a second for Charlie Stevens who having been booked in the first-half, kicked the ball away in frustration to earn a red card.

Luke who only made his first appearance of the season at Plymouth where he was outstanding, then began and finished Bridport's third goal on 68 minutes. After feeding Richardson who found Wise, he moved forward to meet his cross at the near post to slide the ball home ahead of Jackson and a defender.

Two more Sports players were booked as their frustration continued as Bridport overran them; Clarke having a shot blocked and Buckler shooting wide, before Richardson got reward for his hard work by smashing home Luke's pass in the last minute of stoppage time.

The best yet - despite defeat
BLANDFORD UNITED 1 BRIDPORT RESERVES 0

BEEES boss Robin Townsend described his team's display as the best since he joined the club, despite losing by a single goal.

"They were breathtaking!" he said, "A totally different side from the one that lost to Cranborne last week. I was so pleased with their performance."

He was however disappointed with the fact that despite creating around 30 opportunities in the game, his charges failed to find the net, even missing a penalty.

"It is hard to imagine that despite playing so well and creating so many chances that we still lost, but it is a fact."

"We were so good in the first 30 minutes; absolutely superb; and created a hat full of chances, but the only problem was we couldn't put the ball in the net, and at the end of the day, three points is the most important thing"

Jamie Hall scored the only goal of the game in the 28th minute with Blandford's only first-half opportunity following a corner.

Apart from one other effort in the second-half the hosts rarely tested the Bees defence which included first team players Chris Senior and Matt Condliffe, both in need of match practice after a lay-off, and both did well.

"The fact they only had two chances all the game showed how well we played, but it was disappointing that we had three or four opportunities to clear the ball before they scored but didn't."

The Bees did have a chance to equalise from the penalty spot five minutes from time but the 'keeper saved Sam Day's spot-kick.

"To be fair our regular penalty taker was off the pitch and Ben Clarke had a toe injury, and Sam was brave enough to step up and take it. I'd have no qualms in him taking another one," said Townsend.

He concluded by saying: "On reflection, talking with assistant Mark Lock, it was better to have created so many chances rather than none, but disappointing not too have taken any of them."

Missed chances cost 3rds
AFC COBHAM 2 BRIDPORT THIRDS 1
BRIDPORT 3rds paid dearly for missed chances when going down at AFC Cobham.

It was a frustrating day for manager Andy Hitchcock with some players going to the wrong venue and then the referee cancelling requiring a stand-in referee from the home side, although he did a good job in the circumstances.

In fact Hitchcock thought he was more than generous when he awarded the Bees a penalty after 15 minutes when a defender leant on Chris Herbst following a long throw, who then despatched the spot-kick.

"That seemed a very soft decision, but soon after he denied us a stonewall one," remarked Hitchcock.

Cobham, a young, hard working side, hit back however with two breakaway goals to lead at the break.

Bridport's task was made much harder early in the second-half when Jamie McAllister was dismissed, apparently for dissent, and then had a goal chalked off when Chris Gale put his hand out to prevent colliding with the upright when heading in a cross; the referee believing the striker had handled the ball.

Dave Booker then should have earned the Bees at least a point when he headed Man-of-the-Match Jake Williams' cross straight into the arms of the 'keeper with the entire goal to aim at.

The hosts almost grabbed a third at the end but 'keeper Arthur Gay made a terrific save from a 20-yard free-kick.

Mullet lands new club record for PJ

Species & Specimen Shore Festival August 2013

PJ WHEELER set a new West Bay Sea Angling club record with a thin-lipped mullet of 2kg 69g (4lb 9oz) 130.28% in this year's West Bay Sea Angling Club's Species & Specimens Shore Festival.

The fish which was weighed and returned alive to West Bay harbour, won him the David Cornick Specimen Trophy, but it was not enough to win him the overall title and the John & Frances Hunt Species Trophy which went to Ollie Mears with an impressive 23 specimens.

The festival which attracted 17 members was fished over a nine day period, with a total of 33 species caught; up on last year's haul of 19.

Winner of the top junior prize went to Ewan Chambers with 16 fish points, and the golden fish pool was won by Wheeler.

The pairs pool was won by Mears and Craig Horton who caught 27 species between them and earned 95 fish points.

Result: Species: 1st: Ollie Mears 23; 2nd: Phil Maggs 18; 3rd: Craig Horton 15 (won on tie-breaker with Norman Stokes); Specimen: 1st: PJ Wheeler; thin-lipped mullet 130.28%; 2nd: Paul House undulate ray 82%; 3rd: Ewan Chambers (junior) corkwing wrasse 72.69%; Best Junior: Ewan Chambers 16pts, Golden Fish Pool: PJ Wheeler garfish 72cm, Pairs Pool: Ollie Mears & Craig Horton; 27 species, 95 fish pts.

Shore Results: Thursday Rover - June 25th

THIS match proved to be a hard night's fishing with fish in short supply.

1st: Tony Colls - 1160g bass; 2nd: Dave Cornick - 695g pout; 3rd: Paul House - 315g pout, Heaviest fish: Tony Colls - bass 1160g, Most Species: Simon Bowditch.

Andy Neal Rover - July 13th
Anglers fished from Portland to Eyre on a warm, calm evening. The best fish of the night was a three bearded rockling of 1135g, 166.91% specimen caught by Mark Wickenden. Heaviest bag: Paul House - 830g 6 mackerel, Most species: Simon Bowditch - ballan wrasse, poor cod, pout, 2nd heaviest bag: Mark Wickenden - 1280g three bearded rockling, pout 3rd heaviest bag: Tony Colls - 750g dogfish, Heaviest fish (above bags removed): Adam Cullingford - plaice 310g.

Andy Neal Rover - July 29th
FOURTEEN members fished the rover match from Eyre, Bexington, West Bay and Seatown; due to the May water only seven anglers weighed in.

Steve Harwood had the best fish of the night with a cracking small eyed ray of 4949g (10lb 9ozs) 109.10% specimen.

Heaviest bag: Steve Harwood - 4949g, Most Species: Tony Colls - 4410g dogfish, pout, 2nd heaviest bag: Phil Maggs - 2385g small-eyed ray, 3rd heaviest bag: Lea Windsor - 760g dogfish, Heaviest fish (above bags removed): Jim Leighton - 405g dover sole.

Thursday Rover - August 22nd
A GOOD turn out from anglers for the latest rover saw plenty of fish coming to the scales with West Bay proving the venue.

1st: Norman Stokes - 4270g pollack, pout, scad, mackerel; 2nd: Ollie Mears - 3265g plaice, dogfish, pout, mackerel; 3rd Michael Stokes - 3040g pollack, pout, scad, mackerel, Heaviest fish: Ollie Mears dogfish 990g, Most Species: Simon Bowditch ballan and corkwing wrasse, shore rockling, Pollack.

Louis a smash hit

LOUIS Kraukamp was a smash hit in the recent Broad Windsor Evening League Finals scoring over 200 runs without being dismissed as he led his side MDA to victory writes Stuart Broom.

In the semi-final he hit 96 not out as his side beat Country Gardens before smashing 136 not out in the final.

Colleagues from the Sunday Mid-Wessex League who played in opposing sides said they spent the afternoon collecting the ball from the hedgerow as he smashed boundary after boundary.

He was of course a member of the victorious Broad Windsor side who claimed the Mid-Wessex title by beating Queen Camel two weeks ago, but we inadvertently named him as fellow South African Marcel Grunschloss on our team photo caption that appeared on the back page of last week's paper.

Sorry Louis, our apologies!

Buckler looking to sign off on a high

AFTER confirming that he will be moving from his Henley stables at the end of the season, trainer Bob Buckler will be hoping to leave Dorset on a high.

After a good start to last season, the campaign turned sour early in the New Year when a new horse brought a virus into the yard.

Not only did it decimate his previous stable, it caused havoc in Buckler's, and such was its virility it virtually finished the stables season.

Talking to View Sport's Stuart Broom, Buckler said: "It was a particularly harsh virus, and despite immunity stimulants it was very difficult to get rid of it."

"We therefore implemented what we have found the best cure in the past, which is complete rest and to give them the summer off and make sure they come back fresh, even if it means bringing them back a bit later than normal."

Meanwhile, two of the best horses Buckler has ever trained retired during the summer after years of great service.

Twelve-year-old Double Dizzy ran 72 times in his career, winning five times and amazingly achieving another 32 top four finishes in a career that reaped over £107k for his owner Martyn Forrester.

It was intended to retire him at the beginning of last season, but the owner and trainer decided he looked so well they would give him one more run. After eight they called time, and he may well now go into retirement in Ireland.

Buckler paid tribute to him saying: "He has been an amazing servant. He really loves life and you could see that in his running and was particularly happy tackling the cross country courses."

He ran six times in the last four months of last season and finished in the top four on four of those occasions. He's never looked better, perhaps he has finally matured!

"If every horse was like him, life would be easy!" The other retiree is The Sawyer, another 12-year-old. Despite not being the fastest of horses, his jumping was immaculate and only once did he fall in his 61 races that earned owner David Fear almost £215k in prize money.

"His jumping was immaculate, and again was a wonderful servant to the yard. The good news about his retirement is that he gets to stay with me, and we might do the odd bit of hunting."

Despite these losses which are inevitable Buckler has replaced them with some exciting new youngsters and is looking forward to leaving Dorset with a bang.

"My speciality is training chasers which take time to mature, but I have some young exciting youngsters who I have high hopes for, and they will be getting some educational runs during the season."

Meanwhile, every horse has benefitted for the summer off, and even those most badly affected by the virus look in great shape.

There is one other horse in the yard which will not be running this season, or indeed in the future.

Mizzurka was the offspring of Alfara and Miss Diskin, another top horse that had great success under Buckler's guidance, and she proved equally as good by winning the listed Dbs/ebf Mares' Standard Open Nh Flat Race Final at Sandown in 2010.

This enhanced her value for breeding considerably; such horses are listed in bold black type in a sales catalogue.

She retired the following month with a leg problem but has since had a lovely colt foal having been covered by Black Sam Bellamy who is full brother to champion sire Galileo, and is again in foal having gone to Yeats, three times winner of the Ascot Gold Cup.

Leigh delight as Bees find form

BRIDPORT assistant manager Kevin Leigh was delighted with his side's first home league win of the season, and only the second of the campaign, when the beat Longwell Green Sports 4-0 at St Mary's Field.

"That's the best we have played this season, I'm delighted that we've been able to give the supporters and all the harworking committee something to shout about."

Bridport's only other win so far in a frustrating season where they have played well in patches and not received the luck maybe they deserved, was in the second game at Bitton which they won 2-1.

Despite dominating the game on Saturday it looked like the Bees were going to be frustrated, but four second-half goals sealed the win.

Following the impact Ashley

Staines and Matt Morley made when they came on at Plymouth Parkway, Leigh started with then in a changed formation of 4-4-2.

Leigh explained: "Ash and Matt changed the game for us when they came on, so I thought they deserved a start, and they both did very well."

"I also changed the formation which the players seemed more comfortable with, and with the additional pace in the side we played some good, flowing football that created a number of chances."

"It was frustrating not to have scored considering our dominance and I emphasised the fact that they had, albeit offside, with the one chance they had. The early goal helped and we ran them ragged in the second-half.

"We have been playing well individually this season, but collectively we had not clicked, but Saturday was a great team effort."

"The defence was solid, whilst Chris Luke and Darren Watts were tremendous in midfield; they really seem to enjoy playing together, whilst Tom Richardson once again worked really hard and Wisey gave great support just tucked in behind him."

The Bees were hoping to follow the win up with a good display at Brislington last night (Tuesday) which is always a difficult place to go, although they won there last season.

Leigh was expected to start with the same eleven that began on Saturday with the hope that Steve Smith, on loan from Wimborne would be fit to take his place on the bench.

There is a possibility Ryan Dovell would have recovered from his groin and ankle injuries that have kept him out for the last six games, and take some part in Saturday's game with Ilfracombe Town at St

Mary's Field.

With Chris Senior and Matt Condliffe still needing match fitness before the possibility of returning to first team action, Leigh said: "Hopefully we will have everyone back and fit in the next couple of weeks and there will be competition for places."

"Therefore it is up to those playing in the shirt to make sure they keep it."
